

Fragas do Eume Natural Park

Fragas do Eume is one of the best preserved in Europe Atlantic riparian forests. Within its 9,000 hectares live less than 500 people, which gives an idea of the virgin state of these lush forests that follow the course of the river Eume. The park is shaped like a triangle whose vertices and boundaries would Pontes, Pontedeume and Monfero.

