

Hello !

Welcome to a small essay written by myself. Today we will talk about plastics what are plastics? Plastics are objects that various people throw to places which are not suitable. Many animals at the bottom of the sea are dead because of the "problem" that also affects the human species. If people become aware of the environmental problem in which we leave, we would be a better and cleaner world. I hope you like it and please do not use plastics. Thank you

