

БЪЛГАРКА

A BULGARIAN WOMAN

ЙОРДАН ЙОВКОВ

a short story by YORDAN
YOVKOV

- In Yordan Yovkov's story "A BULGARIAN WOMAN", he introduces us to a story of a brave woman. She is not afraid to take water to the fighting soldiers in their battlefield. She believes it is her duty to give her support to these miserable men . .

WATER AS A SYMBOL

The water in the short story is a symbol of giving support, courage from one side and a token of gratitude, compassion and sympathy. Water is refreshment and giving strength and encouragement.

