

THE EMIGRATION OF ALINA'S PARENTS

Past

- 1) - They left Russia after WWII
 - ↳ no jobs
- 2) - Germany offered jobs for russian emigrants
 - ↳ only European Country
- 3) - Left a big part of the family
 - ↳ parents moved here first
- 4) - Father had job with other russian people
 - ↳ made friends with the russian families
- 5) - Parents had to take German lessons
 - ↳ still difficulties till today; e.g. at the doctor

Present

- 1) - Russia has a different political structure
 - ↳ other kind of democracy
- 2) - In Germany you can do whatever you want and say your opinion freely
 - ↳ not as Russia
- 3) - Life in Russia can be very strict
 - ↳ parents tell you what to do and to be better than you already are
- 4) - Alina's family does not celebrate Easter like we do in Germany
 - ↳ celebrate it in may with cake and presents with easter eggs
- 5) - The life of the family has improved
 - ↳ better jobs
 - ↳ better lifes
 - ↳ better condition
- 6) - Parents felt displaced because they did not agree with the German democracy

Future

- 1) - Parents want to go back to Russia when the kids are grown-up and have a save future

