

PEACE DAY DOSIER

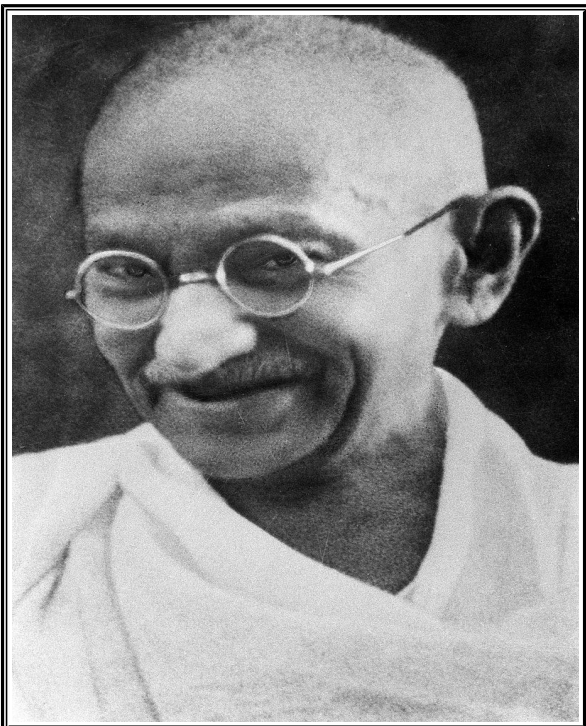

WHY DO WE CELEBRATE THE SCHOOL DAY OF PEACE AND NONVIOLENCE ON JANUARY 30?

Since 1964, to commemorate the death of Gandhi, is celebrated the School Day of Nonviolence and Peace, recognized by UNESCO in 1993, on January 30. On this date we remind the need for the need for an education in the tolerance, solidarity, respect for Human Rights, nonviolence and peace.

The slogan of this day is:

"Universal love, non-violence and peace.
Universal love is better than selfishness,
non-violence is better than violence
and peace is better than war".

MOHANDAS KARAMCHAND GANDHI
<<MAHATMA GANDHI>>

THERE IS NO
PATH TO PEACE,
PEACE IS THE PATH.

WE WANT TO LIVE IN PEACE

(lyrics' adaptation: team Arts talk about us)

We want to tell you what we sing
a simple day like this,
we'll tell you about a bitter fact that was in New Delhi.

There was January 30th
of 1948
a generous, kind and good man
was shot and he was killed.

His name Mohandas Karamchand
and Gandhi his surname
but he was known like MAHATMA
the one with "the big soul".

Nonviolence he tried to teach
as people's way of life,
he showed us peaceful resistance
and he lost his lifetime.

His death must make us think about
there are still lot of deaths,
they have been working for World Peace,
their lives we can't forget.

So we want you to join our song,
we want to shout the world
the way that Gandhi has taught us:
nonviolence and love.

All the world must hear today
our freedom song and words stop the wars and stop the fears
we want to live in peace.

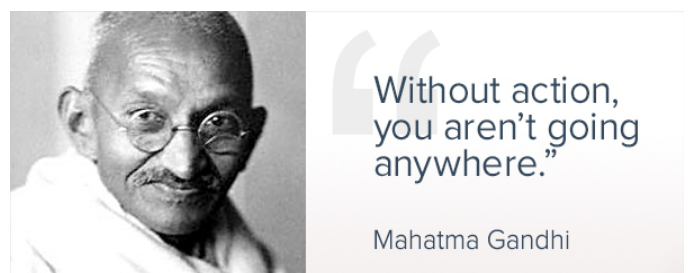

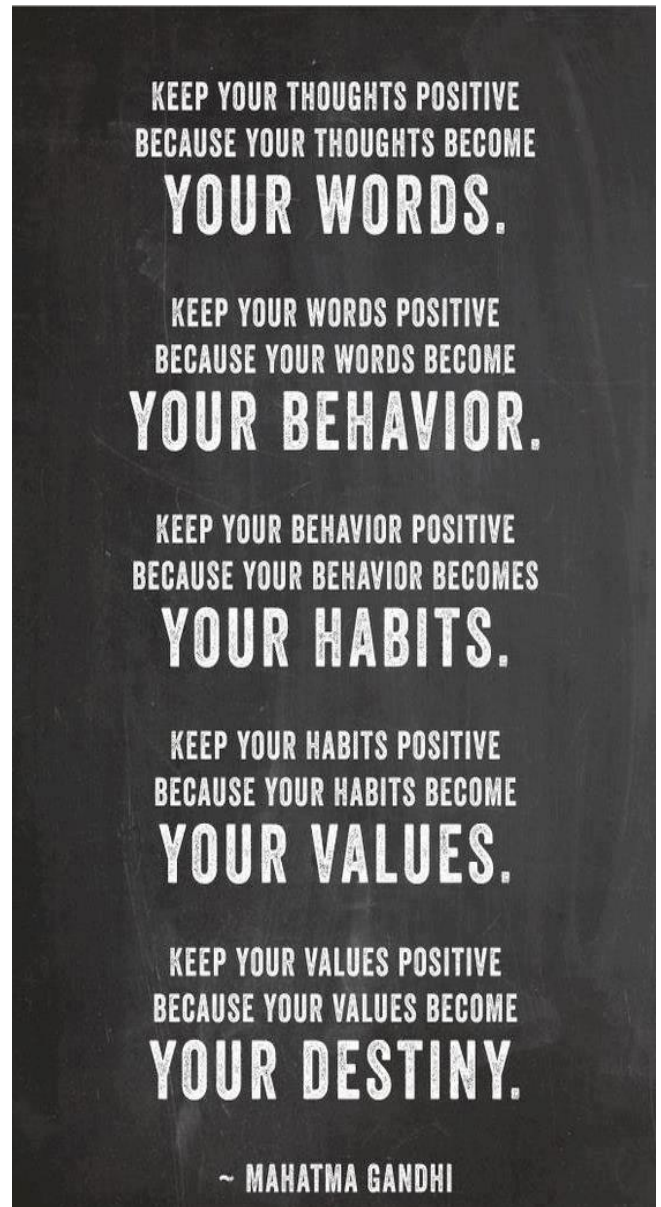

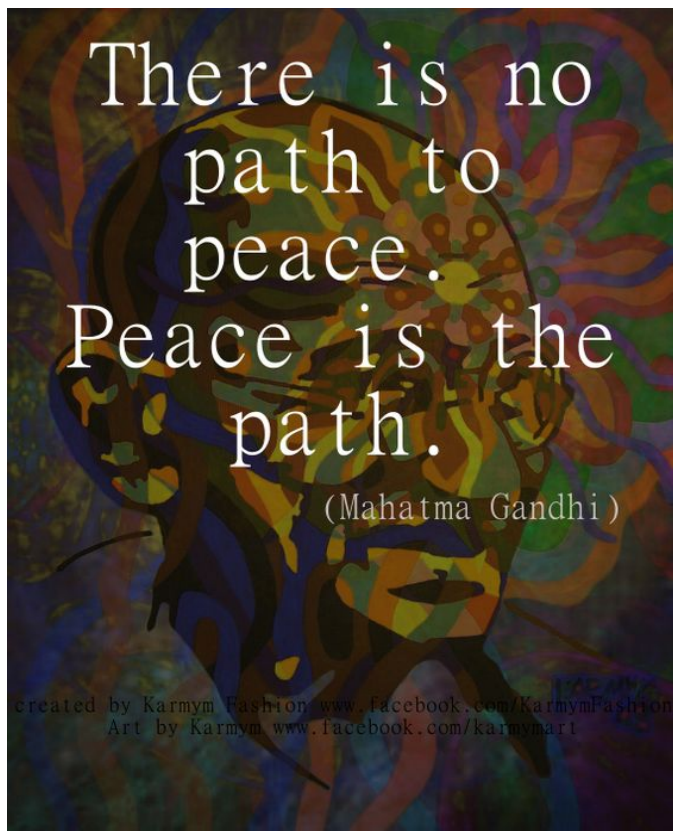

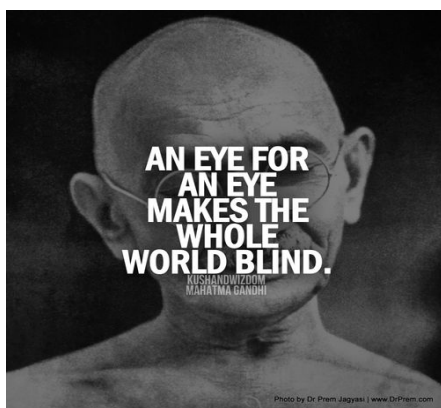

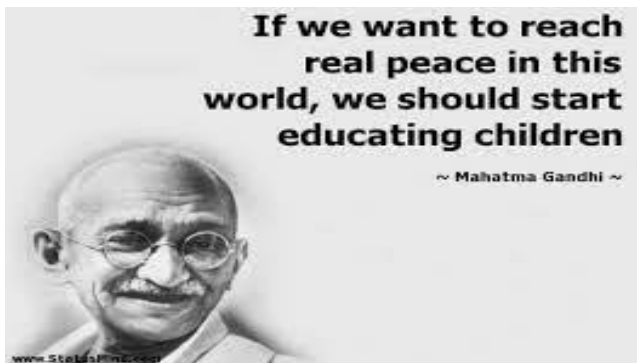

WE WANT TO LIVE IN PEACE!!!!

WE WANT TO LIVE IN PEACE!!!!

ARTS AND CRAFTS:

1. Gandhi's sentences for posters, murals, etc. :

2. Our own slogan (for murals, posters, etc.):

Peace can be written in many ways,
but it only has one meaning.
