Young people and urban citizenship – Students managing photo and video projects on urban chances and challenges

Your task for our project meeting in Germany

During our project meeting in Germany we will explore a cultural hotspot in Stuttgart, the so-called “Kulturmeile” – a district in Stuttgart where you can find a lot of Stuttgart’s major cultural institutions, i.e. theatres, museums, galleries, libraries.

Find out about a cultural hotspot in your town or your region and prepare a presentation in form of a photo documentary (e.g. slide show) or a short video clip.

Please consider the criteria for creating photo documentaries and video clips and the tips for how to deal with sources (see extra worksheets).

The presentation of your photo documentary or video clip including your commentary on the spot should not take longer than 5-10 minutes (per country).

Take into consideration aspects of urban development, e.g. the type of institution(s), location of cultural hotspot in the town/region, the architectural style of the building(s), public accessibility, public response.
