5. What did you learn?

Some nice and/or interesting answers

“Mucem means “Musée des civilisations européennes et méditerranéennes”. Architect is Rudy Riciotti.”

“I learnt new things about ancient and modern art, new facts about city center, even some architectural points. Saw some unique art works, which probably I will never see again.”

“I learned historical things about Marseille and art.”

“about the heritage of European civilizations”

“I learned about French history, saw a lot of architectures.”

“We explored Old Port by foot, interacted with public art, the Ombrière (architect Norman Foster), public art sculpture with a mirror on the ceiling providing a reflective experience to the people below, visited MuCem which exhibits history, genealogy and culture of the European and Mediterranean civilizations.”

“I enjoyed this trip very much but I think that we should have visited more. I think that we needed a lot more time.”

“I learnt the production efficiency systems and beauty of the Mediterranean Civilizations.”

“I learnt to socialize.”
