

Peddy-paper

Discovering Barcelos

Contacts

School: +351 253 809 360

Teachers:

Fernando Carvalho: +351 932726586

Glória Cardoso: +351 917587400

Police station: +351 253 802 570

Hospital: +351 253 809 200 / +351 253 809 271

Peddy-paper

Discovering Barcelos

Now walk to the nearest Police station. Next to it there's a monument that was built in honour of the Portuguese soldiers from Barcelos that were killed in:

- World War I
 World war II

Who is the author of the inscription on the monument?

Translate the inscription.

Now you just have to go back to the starting point and finish your test.

We hope you had fun!

You arrived at ____ h : ____ min.

CONGRATULATIONS!

The aim of this activity is to give you the opportunity to know, in an amusing way, our city, our people, our culture and our traditions. At the same time, by promoting the cooperative spirit, we wish to make the friendship bonds stronger and make you believe that ...

UNITED WE STAND, DIVIDED WE FALL!

Are you ready?

NOTE: on page 15 you will find several phone contacts that you can use, if necessary.

What is the name of your team? _____

Right now it's, ____ h : ____ m (time).

Get ready...

START!

Peddy-paper

Discovering Barcelos

Leave the school and turn left.

You are, right now, in an Avenue that has the name of a world known personality. What was his real name? (2 words)

Go to the Pottery Museum.

At the door of the Museum there's a fine example of the Portuguese iconography.

How many hearts can you see? _____

Now that you know the world famous Barcelos rooster, reproduce it on the next page.

NOTE: colourful drawings will get more points.

DON'T FORGET!

Throughout your journey you will have to find the smallest example of the Barcelos rooster that you can find. BUT IT MUST BE MADE OF CLAY.

Walk along the Liberty Avenue.

What does the fireman carry in his arms?

What's the door number of the "Casa dos Beça Meneses"?

Have you noticed the big sculpture-cocks that are spread throughout the city? How many have you seen till now?

Walk to the Campo da República, which is known as _____, due to the _____ that happens there every _____.

In the middle of this vast place there's a fountain. Which animals can you see next to the royal arms and the old honour symbol of the village of Barcelos? _____

Peddy-paper

Discovering Barcelos

Walk up to the Bom Jesus da Cruz Temple.

Which geometrical polygon does this temple look like?

Which miracle is this temple associated with?

Behind this temple you can admire the honour symbol of the city of Barcelos. Take a picture of the whole team next to it.

NOTE: you will have to print and hand it in paper at the end of your test.

Find the shop INOVA and complete the following sentence:

Hour friendcheap will finnish only wen _____

(Mistakes in popular sayings were very common in old days. So, try to follow the style. Original sentences that keep the meaning will get more points)

Peddy-paper

Discovering Barcelos

One of the outside walls of the Pottery Museum has a particular metal shining aspect. Who designed that wall?

(2 words)

Go to the Medieval Bridge.

Before getting to the bridge go inside Mrs. Lurdes' shop (Casa Lurdes) and ask for the price of the biggest rooster there.

€ _____,00

Right in front of it, you can admire a building that evokes the three Greek orders. Which orders are those?

_____, _____ and _____

Follow to the Porta Nova Square.

There you will see a fountain that was offered to the city of Barcelos by the Brothers of S. João de Deus in _____ (year).

Which is the most typical pastry of the Colonial Pastry shop?

Now go to the Barrocas Garden.

Take another picture of the whole team (but now the most original one you can get!) in front of one of the pseudo frontispieces of the garden.

NOTE: you will have to print and hand it in paper at the end of your test.

Next, at the number 57 of S. Francisco Street, once lived _____, a very important personality of our history for having fought for the Independence of Portugal against the Kingdom of Castile (Spain) in the famous battle of _____.

Go straight ahead in the direction of the Dr. Martins Lima square.

On the top of the street there's a religious temple. How many shamrocks can you see in the arches of its door? _____

Which saint is represented in the tile panel?

Move on to D. António Barroso street.

Find the house where, in old times, there was Mr. Quintas' supermarket.

In what year was that house built? _____

The medieval bridge was built over the river _____ and has _____ arches.

On the other side of the river there's a very small chapel – Capela de Nossa Senhora da Ponte.

How many stone pillars hold the roof? _____

This temple was built in 1328 as a shelter chapel for pilgrims who headed to _____.

Return to Barcelos.

In front of you, at the very end of the bridge, you will see the Palace of the Dukes of Bragança. You will be able to distinguish one of the _____ (number) chimneys with high tube (symbol of richness) which was originally part of this Palace.

Follow to the Archaeological Museum (inside the Palace).

Peddy-paper

Discovering Barcelos

On your left there's the Pine tree manor-house – Solar dos Pinheiros.

What do the local people call to the figure engraved on stone that we can observe in the cornice of the southern tower?

At the entrance of the Archaeological Museum you will find a 14th century Cross that shows the two miracles that are associated to the curious Legend of the Cock. Explain briefly those miracles.

Take a Picture of the whole team next to the Cross.

NOTE: you will have to print and hand it in paper at the end of your test.

In the Archaeological Museum it is possible to see a tomb of the Tailor Brotherhood. What object is engraved?

Walk to the Mother Church.

What image can you see above its side entrance?

In a niche of the west wall of the Town Hall Building there's a masterpiece made by a ceramist born in Barcelos.

How do you call that piece of work in English? (3 words)

_____, _____ and _____

What's, in English, the artistic surname of that ceramist?

A few meters ahead, there's a gravestone that evokes the House of the Misericórdia of Barcelos.

How old will this institution be this year (2013)? _____

Peddy-paper

Discovering Barcelos

