

This is Militello in val di Catania, a small town near Scordia. Militello is full of baroque buildings, like the Barresi Branciforte Castle with inside the Ninfa Zizza Fountain

Together with other cities of the Val di Noto, Militello has been inscribed in the UNESCO World Heritage sites list.

In Militello we have lots of religious events, most important are Santa Maria della Stella and Santissimo Salvatore. For the first one people wear blue and white clothes, for the second one people wear red and white clothes.

Also these churches have a baroque style of the 17th and 18th century

Another important event in Militello is the Sagra della mostarda e del Fico d'India in October, with sicilian wagons and lots of sicilian music or Trantelle played with Tambourines, squeeze box, flutes and the jew's harp is known as the "Marranzanu"

The fico d'India is one of the most important fruit here is Militello and with this fruit we make the Mostarda, and it can be dry like a candy or liquid

We have also lots of sicilian pastry like the cassattelle with almonds, cannoli siciliani with ricotta cheese or chocolat, Granita with almond or lemon, Focacce with spinaches, sausages, potatoes, cheese and black olives.

