

Integrated History and Lithuanian lesson-excursion

“Near the longest lake Asveja”

History teacher G. Gvozdaite

Lithuanian teacher J. Gutmaniene

2015 m.

-
- Participants – form IIg.
 - Number of students– 17.
 - Place - Dubingiai.
 - Duration – 1,5 hours.

The aim

To foster students' civic awareness and develop willingness to know the native country and its history.

Objectives

- To become acknowledged with Dubingiai castle's site and Radvilos' family who resided there.
- To introduce with the exposition of ruins of Radvilos palace of the XV – XVI century.
- To watch a documentary “At the bottom of the lakes”.

Methods

Excursion

Discussion

Film review

Detailed content of activity

- Viewing of exposition of Radvilos' palace ruins.
- Get acquainted with the famous Radvilos family, their relationships with Dubingiai.
- Visit the Radvilos' family.
- Viewing of exposition dedicated to the longest lake of Lithuania.
- Watching the film about the treasures of the lake.

Tasks for students

- To find out the Radvilos' family tree.
- To identify the most famous representatives of Radvilos family and describe them.
- To name the duties of Radvilos in the Grand Duchy of Lithuania.

Students see the discovered fragments of Radvilos' palace

The exposition of Radvilos' palace ruins

Radvilos' castle site

Some fragments from excursion

Homework

- To write 5 compound sentences about the excursion in Dubingiai.
- To create Radvilos family tree.

Outcomes

- Students become acquainted with the history of Lithuania while actively participating in the excursion.
- They gained some knowledge about the Radvilos.
- They recognized natural resources.
- While doing reading comprehension task, they applied knowledge about Barbora Radvilaite.

Lesson evaluation

- Students actively participated in the discussion about excursion outcomes.
- They found the necessary information, were able to work independently or in cooperation with the teacher.
- They connected received information with the present life.

Students' feedback

- We admired the beautiful view of Radvilos' castle site. (Domantas)
- We were interested in the ruins of the palace which were discovered by archeologists. (Tomas)
- It was interesting to find out Barbora Radvilaite and all Radvilos' life. (Lukas)