What have we done?

- We have talked with children about migration and problems migrants face in their new home.
- We are trying him to learn better greek and being closer to him and his difficulties.

THIS IS ELLEN

Ellen's Profile

- Ellen was born in Denmark, her family came to Crete because of her father's work (he works in an energy factory as an engineer).
- She speaks Danish and little of English. It is difficult for her to speak and understand Greek that's why it's difficult to communicate with other kids.
- She does not like playing with other kids due to her difficulty in communication.
- He likes to read books and to play with her little sister.

Ellen's Profile

- She likes greek food.
- She likes local sweets and fruits.
- She can dance very well.
- She looks different comparing to greek girls because of her blonde hair.
- They have lived in Germany for a year before coming to Greece.

School of Palekaastro

What have we done?

- Greek language lessons for better and faster communication.
- Giving more opportunities her to take part in school activities and village's life.
