

winning project: CLIMATE CHANGE IS A POLITICAL CHOICE

Class: _____

Student: _____
Grade: _____

find rubric non verbal communication

Rubric: Public Speaking

This rubric will be used to assess a presentation for student government to practice the various elements of public speaking.

BODY LANGUAGE IN POLITICAL SPEECHES

This rubric will be used to assess our politicians' use of non-verbal communication techniques in speeches about climate change and sustainable development.

	Incomplete Politician did not complete the requirements of the task. 1 pts	Poor Politician met only parts of the requirements of the task. 2 pts	Fair Politician met the basic standards of the task. 3 pts	Good Politician clearly met the standards of the task. 4 pts	Excellent Politician thoroughly completed the standards of the task. 5 pts
Eye Contact Speaker made a great connection with the crowd and not looking down at the floor or at its notes.	Incomplete	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Speaking Skills Voice volume is not too soft and is projected to the audience clearly. The speaker does not talk too fast or slow.	Incomplete	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Pose The speaker walked to the podium proudly, and looked confident stood straight with his shoulders back and feet shoulder width apart. He/she didn't slouch	Incomplete	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Hand gestures The speaker used a few effective hand gestures to communicate numbers, positions and movement: i.e. thumbs up, sign for stop fist, number of fingers...	Incomplete	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Facial expressions The speaker used a few facial expressions to convey how he/she felt about... i.e. smiled, looked surprised, raised eyebrows (to show confusion, shock), frowned (to show anger or concern)...	Incomplete	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Mannerisms The speaker avoded showing nvervousness: ie. fiddling with his/her hair or suit, putting his/her hands in pockets, and excessively using filler words such as 'um,' 'so' and 'like'.	Incomplete	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent

edit categories

Subjects: English

Types: Project Presentation Handout

Comments:

Build free rubrics at www.iRubric.com.

Rubric Code: PZ2K933WA