

Erasmus+

The First Transnational Meeting

In Nitra, Slovakia
17th - 21st October 2017

1. Preparation for the meeting

Comments, suggestions on the question on preparation for the meeting:

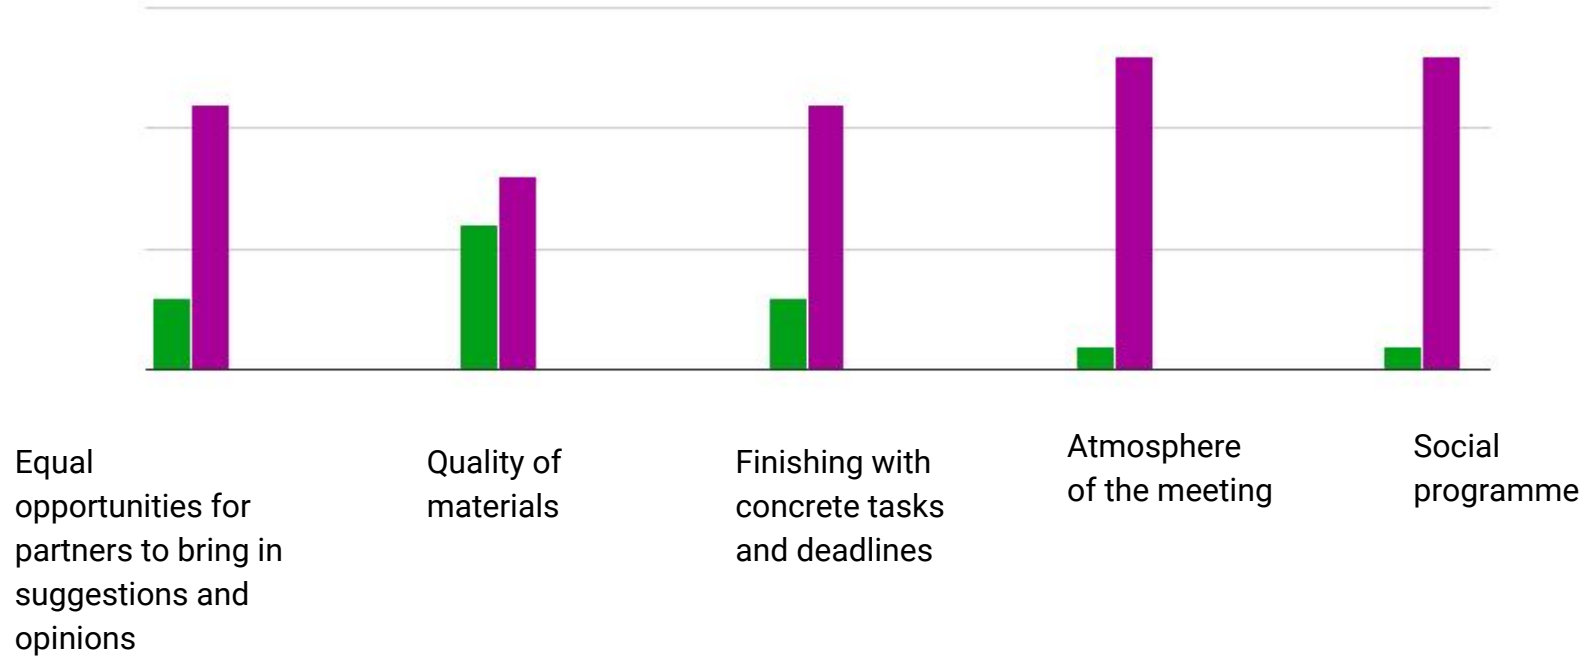

It was pretty well-organised.

EVERYTHING WAS ARRANGED VERY WELL

2. Project meeting evaluation

2. Project meeting evaluation

3. What did you particularly like in the project meeting?

13 responses

- everything
- Everything : organization was perfect
- I particularly enjoyed the CLIL workshop in Music led by Constantine the Philosopher University. It was a very complete and thorough session that gave lots of important insights for CLIL professional development and ideas for the Hands On CLIL project implementation.
- The coordinator answered everything in our minds. So it was so productive. And the host country was so well-organised and hospitable. And the partners were so friendly and helpful.
- The people and the way everyone interacted
- The coordinator had very organize the activities. The atmosphere with mates. The hospitality of Nitra's teachers.
- We spoke English all the time and shared our education system and our culture.
- friendly atmosphere, inspiration, well balanced
- CLIL ked som presentation
- people, programme, organisation
- After meeting team building.
- the possibility to exchange experience, the enthusiasm of the coordinator
- Workshop led by UKF university was extremely useful. Food was excellent.

4. What did you dislike?

7 responses

- nothing (3)
- Nothing maybe some more free time
- Nothing in particular. Maybe the fact there wasn't a twin room.
- Nothing to say
- Nothing particular.

5. What would you like to suggest for further meetings?

9 responses

- dumplings with sheep cheese
- Free time to take a shower before dinner if it's possible
- The CLIL workshops for the LTTs should be carefully planned for both teachers and pupils so they make a huge impact in the learning of content by means of bilingual methodology.
- Bringing CLIL experts to the meetings is also an excellent idea that other countries should try to implement.
- Also some training in eTwinning should be foreseen.
- More time to work on the project
- Maybe a little bit of free time.
- more activities at school.
- I was really satisfied
- more space for the experience exchange, hands-on tips for using the CLIL method for concrete subjects
- More free time.

6. What were your expectations for this meeting and how well were they met?

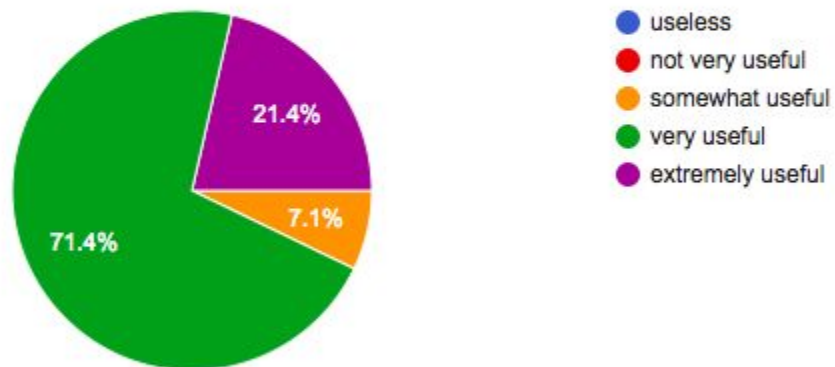

8 responses

- very well
- Really good expectations that are true
- The first meeting expectations were met in the sense all Hands On CLIL project activities were reviewed, and attention was paid to the Strategic Action Plan of the project in order to clarify what is expected in terms of partnership communication, dissemination and evaluation.
- I was also overwhelmed by the CLIL Music Workshop which provided me with lots of key CLIL aspects to take into consideration when designing and implementing a CLIL lesson.
- I was expecting for formality and more hours working on the project. We could have worked a little bit more, but it was ok
- My expectations were like the met was.
- everything was even better than my expectation
- I was excited and nervous of meeting, my expectations were filled up and I look forward for the next meeting
- There was a pleasant and friendly atmosphere, good collaboration of all the partners.

7. How useful did you find the presentations of all partner organisations?

14 responses

8. How useful did you find a workshop/exchange of good practices in CLIL?

14 responses

9. What do you think we need to cover in future joint events?

7 responses

- singing classes :)
- How to design a CLIL lesson
- How to deliver a CLIL lesson
- How to use eTwinning
- How do the language and content teachers collaborative work
- More workshops
- more clil lessons
- sharing of good experience
- Everything was great.
- Visit real lessons at schools,

10. Additional comments, suggestions

3 responses

- we experienced a valuable meeting.
- I would prefer twin room instead of double.