

Hello futuristic weirdoes!!! (Well, probably you are not weirdo's, but for me you are 😊(it is meant positively))

My name is Ane Marte; I'm 15 in five days (15th November (born in 1999)). I am a very weird person, though at times I am able to behave normal. I live in a small village named Selbu, in Norway. In Selbu people usually like sports, skiing and snow scooters. I, on the other hand, read a lot, play flute in a school band (which probably sounds lame, but it is super fun). I also participate in local politics sometimes.

I listen to A LOT of different types of music, though I usually listen to a lot of the same genre at the same time. Right now I'm kinda obsessed with jazz and music involving instruments (like saxophone, clarinet, cornet, trumpet etc.) Right now I listen to the songs "Big Spender" by Shirley Bassey, "Bourbon Street parade" by Louis Armstrong and "St. Thomas" by Sonny Rollins. They are VERY fun to play. I also have begun to learn playing saxophone! I also sing a lot. I also listen a lot to musical songs. I LOVE singing them, especially from Les Misérables. I also listen to a lot of old music, like Queen. Have you in 2114 even heard of the ones I have recited?

When I grow up, I want to work with music, or English, since they are my favorite subjects. There for I think I will end up as a teacher and teach those subjects since they are my favorite subjects. I also enjoy the Norwegian class a bit (there we learn Norwegian literature history, and learn to write stories).

The books I read are mostly fantasy, futuristic or romance novels. My favorite authors are Rick Riordan, John Green and J.K. Rowling. Have you even heard of them in 2114? You've probably heard of J.K. Rowling, she wrote the Harry Potter series.

If there are some weird things said in this text: google it. (Does google even exist in 2114?)

Google is a web page where you can search for different things on the internet, it is very useful.

Right now we have a show in the part of Selbu where I live, it is a bit difficult to explain what it is since it isn't an English word for it... the Norwegian word is REVY and it is kind of like a cabaret but with local touches. There are a lot of different songs and very small plays (5-10 min) in one show. It is very fun; it's the first year I can join since you have to be confirmed to join. (Meaning you can participate in the party after the premiere). You see, in Norway, and especially in small towns, there are a type of party you can participate in after you are confirmed. There are music, and you dance to it (swing and different types of folk dance) I haven't been on a lot of em' yet. Because it is 'tradition' to drink alcohol, and very many end up drunk. Even though if they are too young... So, I have decided not to drink. And it can get quite uncomfortable with so many drunks.... BUT it is fun to dance ☺

Selbu, Norway 10.11.14

I am allergic to fur, so I don't have any animals.

Love, hugs and kisses

Ane Marte
