

Hello, my name is Laia and I'm fourteen. I live near Barcelona.

I live with my father because my parents are separated and I have one dog.

I don't like school, but the only subject that I like is History because it is interesting.

In my free time I like dancing, I meet my friends, I watch films...

Now, having big mobile is fashionable. For example: SAMSUNG S5, Iphone 6 plus...

I like reading books, but I don't have a favourite book for the moment.

I like listening to music. My favourite band is One Direction. I love Harry Styles.

I like so much Dylan O'Brien, he's very awesome and he acts very well.

From Monday to Friday I go to school from 8:15 am to 2:45 pm and the weekend I sleep a lot and I do my homework and then I meet with my friends.

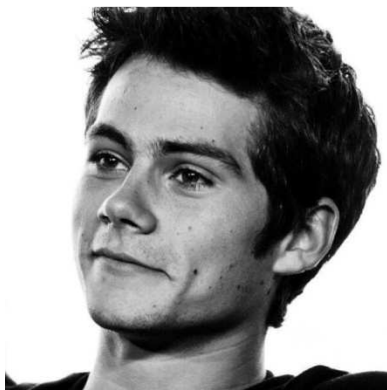

In the future, I would like to live in London, Australia or California.

When I am grown up, I want be a lawyer.

I have a message for the future generations:

Don't be silly and be a good person.

LOTS OF KISSES

Dylan O'Brien
