

THE STORY OF PEACE

This is the story of Peace written by:
4<sup>o</sup> Nipiagogeio of Kilcis, Greece

Once upon a time, somewhere in the Earth
Peace lived happily with her sisters: LOVE,
FRIENDSHIP, FREEDOM, FAITH, TRUST, HELP, RESPECT,
ACCEPTANCE, SORRY, TRUTH, EQUALITY, TOLERANCE AND DEMOCRACY.

They played and laugh every day.

One day something terrible happened. A wild and rough man kidnapped her sisters.

Peace cried a lot. But she couldn't let the man to prison her sisters. All the world was in danger. So she decided to ask for help from the Defenders of Peace. She decided to travel in their schools and with their help to find her sisters. It was up to her and the Defenders to restore PEACE on Earth. First she went...

5TH PRIMARY SCHOOL OF RHODES, GREECE

... in a beautiful island, called Rhodes,
in Greece.

Suddenly appeared Apollo. Apollo
was one of the 12 Gods of Olympus,
God of prophecy and divination art.

He welcomed Peace and then gave her a magic wand. This will guide her to travel to many places. In each places she will know important persons who will help to find and liberate her sisters.

So, Peace lifted up the stick and began her journey to Ukraine.

peace

... in a few seconds Peace appeared in a big beautiful city Kharkiv in Ukraine. She didn't know where to look for her sisters. There were a lot of people everywhere. Suddenly a strong and handsome Ukrainian Kossak appeared in front of her and offered her his help. Peace told him about her kidnapped sisters and about Defenders of peace from school №91.

The Kossak and Peace took a taxi and left for school №91. Defenders were very glad to get acquainted with Peace and they decided to give a present for her: 2 magical dolls: the boy doll will help her to recognise when people tell truth or false; the girl doll will give her skills to the speak and the understand different languages because she has to travel around the world to find all sisters.

Defenders promised <sup>do</sup> to all their best and began to search the information about stolen sisters. Soon their friends reported that they had seen a strange man with 2 pretty girls at the Kharkiv airport. After that Defenders and Peace hurried up there. How Peace was happy to recognise her sisters Freedom and Love in those pretty girls. They caught the strange man and he spoke in unfamous language. Using our magic doll Peace asked him where he found the girls and he answered that he had bought them in Turkey. The second magical doll affirmed it was true. Peace and her sisters thanked Ukrainian Defenders of Peace, they lifted up the magic wand and left for Turkey...

When Peace and her sisters arrived coastal Samsun in Turkey it was winter time and snowy. Suddenly a snowdoll appeared just in front of them. It was not a normal snowman. It had some magical powers. It could get news by snowflakes and winds. It was able to speak Turkish not the language that was spoken by Peace. But there was no problem. The girl doll from Ukraine helped to Peace to communicate with it. Snowdoll offered to go to Kutlukent 80.Yil i.O. to meet with The Defenders of Peace team. It was cold and wet because of winter and Blacksea. Peace and her sisters looked at the boy doll to be able to understand that if snowdoll told the truth or the false. The boy doll said "YES". Now, they could go for the Defenders of Peace team in Kutlukent 80.Yil i.O.

When they came to the school yard, they saw that the team was waiting for Peace and her sisters. Snowdoll stopped. It is not featured freezer cabin and it should have waited for them outside of the school. In the school, the Defenders of Peace team had prepared a delicious meal for lunch to them.

While the guests were in school Magic Snowdoll got some news by snowflakes about Tolerance.

According to the snowflakes, a little girl, who said without stopping her name is Tolerance, appeared at Sultanahmet Square in Istanbul. Boy doll approved what it said.

One of The Defenders and Snowdoll in featured freezer cabin accompanied the guests to go to Sultan Ahmet Square. At Square, suddenly Snowdoll saw a little girl who sat down behind of Ayasofya Museum shouted "Tolerance". Tolerance stood up and they ran toward each others. They hugged for a long time and shedded tears of happiness. It started snow again. Snowdoll whispered to the Defenders. The Defenders was excited, said that two little girls were founded in PYRGOS-GREECE. They could have been Peace's sisters.

At the airport, while they were waiting for flight time, Peace was sipping Turkish coffee. They were never going to forget their time was spent in Turkey. Snowdoll also was with them anymore to be able to help them if one day they needed to speak with snowflakes or winds. They all with TOLERANCE sister were ready to go to PYRGOS-GREECE ...

When Peace and her sisters arrived Pyrgos-Greece. She didn't know where can find her other sisters. She was unhappy because anyone can help them.

Suddenly two dolls, the greek mother and Elisa, offered to help them. The greek mother doll could find things that anyone else can find. Elisa had very good vision so she could see people from far away.

Snowdoll couldn't withstand the heat so Peace and other, found a safer place to live. They went in a big hotel. The sn...

Snowdoll got news for a big blizzard, so they were trapped in the snow. While they was having a cup of a hot tea, someone hits the door.

«Let's open the door!» said snowdoll

«Elisa, look from the window who is there?» said Peace

«They are two girls» said Elisa

All together open the door and saw two twin sisters. Sisters told them in that room was a ticket for France.

The boy doll said it's true. Greek mother doll found the ticket and they.....

... decided to go to France, to find the other sisters... When they arrived at Charles de Gaulle's airport in Paris, Elina noticed a tall man who was holding a sign "Peace is wanted here!" So the sisters came to him, he explained that he had received an album with the mission of giving it to Peace, at the airport. The sisters opened the album and recognized the work of the Defenders of Peace, so they took a train and a taxi and arrived in Collège Jean Moulin in Wallers. There, they met the Defenders of Peace; it was great to have the girl doll because everyone could understand each other.

"But what can we do? Where are our sisters?"

Peace asked. The Defenders of Peace had an idea, they drew a peace tree and they all put their fingerprints on it, then they concentrated "Where are the sisters?" Suddenly they could hear a voice, like a ghost's voice.

"Go to the old mine and you'll find your sisters!"

The tree was a divination tree. The boy doll said it was true and they all went to the mine.

Of course the place was empty, as no one works here any more. It is a Unesco world heritage site now.

But today, a Peace entered the main building with her sisters and the Defenders of Peace, she heard: "Please, help us!"

They rushed and found Friendship and Equality locked in a room.

The team managed to open the ~~ops~~ door and Peace started to cry with joy. Everyone was so happy.

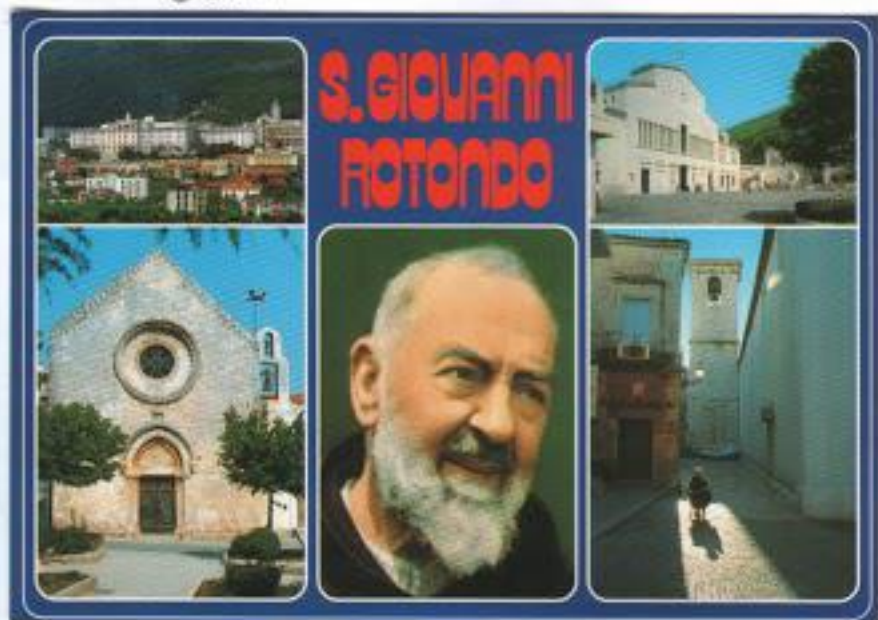

"We must leave quickly" Equality said, "the man who kidnapped us will come back soon." So they went back to the school. "Can you help us find our other sisters?" Peace asked.

"Maybe we could use the fingerprints tree again!"

The Defender of Peace concentrated and suddenly they heard a voice: "Go to Italy and you will find your sisters!" So Peace with her five sisters thanked the team and left for ...

22 March S. Giovanni Rotondo
2014

... Peace and his five sisters left for Italy and arrived in a small town called San Giovanni Rotondo situated between two mountains. They began travelling around the town, as long as they met a man with a thick white beard and wearing a long brown tunic, who looked at, smiled at them and said: "Go straight down this street, at the top you will find a very special house and you will recognize it immediately. It is inhabited by many strong children who are fighting against an evil monster."

Peace and his five sisters did not waste a moment, went on fast toward the road that had been shown and finally, after a long climb they found in front of them a magic house. It was joyful, cheerful and colourful. They rang the bell and a woman with a big smile on her lips and her eyes full of hope opened the door. (That's the Pediatric Oncology Unit at the Hospital Casa Sollievo della Sofferenza).

All the children came out to Peace and her sisters, asking them the story and why they were there. Freedom told them all that had happened: the long journey made in the different schools of the world, and all the Defenders they had met. A small child, but very strong, stood up and said: "Do not worry we will be your Defenders. Some time ago Respect and Sorry came to see us and we know where they are." Peace did not hesitate a moment to thank him, because they were just looking for them. Then Freedom asked the child: "Where can we find them?" The child, proud and secure said: "They are on the other side of the town, in a beautiful school very colourful where every day many children learn a lot of things." Freedom asked again: "What are they doing there?"

A little girl with big blue eyes and a strange mask over her mouth replied: "They are teaching the children to have respect for their school, their teachers, their life and if they fail, sorry will help them".

Peace heard everything and told the children: "We met so many Defenders who helped to unite our family, but you are really special as you also taught us the value of life. Thank you!".

The little girl with big blue eyes advised Peace and her sisters to run to this school to embrace the other two sisters, but before she left she gave Peace a small wooden house and said: "Take this small house with you, it is magic and it will help you to unite all your family, but it will also remind you that we are little but strong".

Peace and sisters ran towards the Defenders of Peace at the school "I. C. Pascoli-Forgione" which was dedicated to the man Peace and her sisters had met before. In this school the Defenders are very combative and they defend peace at all costs.

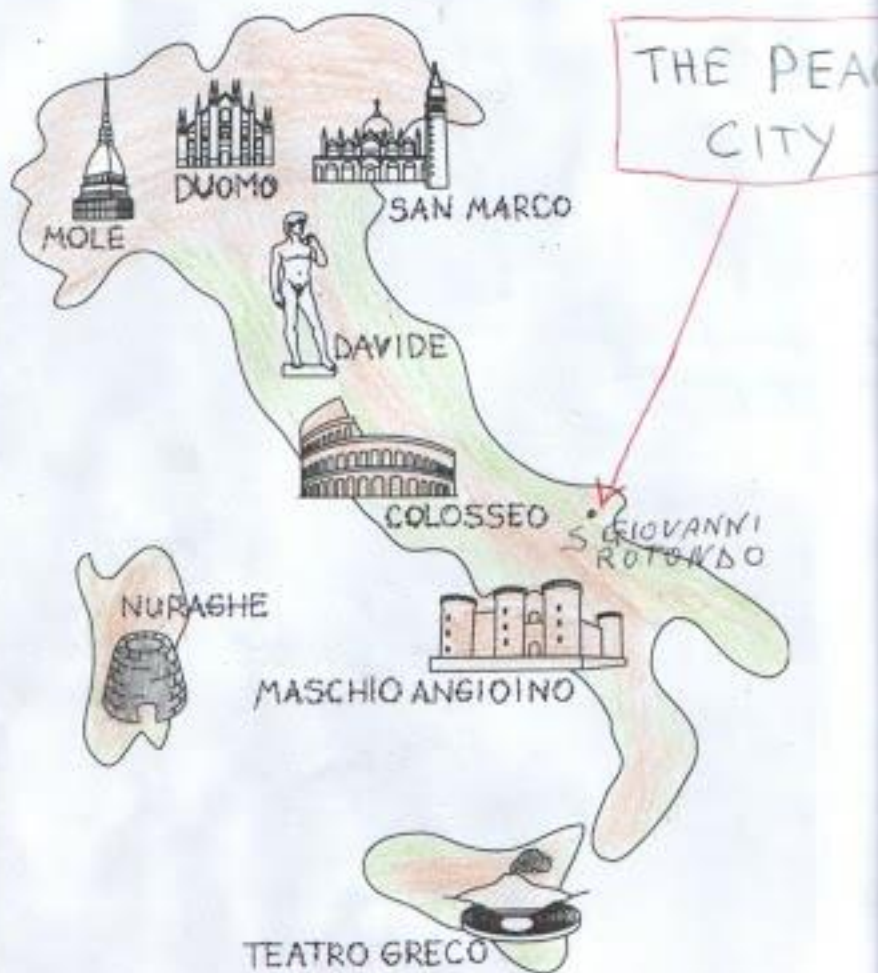

At the school they were welcomed with great enthusiasm. They embraced Respect and Sorry and there was a big party full of dance and songs.

At the end they thanked everyone and left for Porto Garibaldi looking for the other sisters.

ITALY

Peace with her sisters arrived in Porto Garibaldi, a village on the Adriatic sea, exactly on the canal front where many fishing boats were berthed. They saw a fisherman that was refitting his fishing net. They asked him "Pardon, did you see a group <sup>of girls</sup> from your village?"

The fisherman answered "No, I didn't, I'm sorry." Peace with her sisters were very sad and began to cry. The fisherman invited them to go fishing. Peace and her sisters agreed and the group sailed.

When they were in open sea, the fisherman casted his nets and, among the fish, he found a book! Peace read it in a loud voice - you want to find your sisters

Democracy and Help, run to the Defenders of Peace of the V classes in Porto Garibaldi!»

On the canal quay they also found a big smile with a letter.

Peace pushed it and they were at once brought to the V class

The Defenders of Peace of Porto Garibaldi welcomed Peace and her sisters. Peace was so happy to see in the corridor of the school a poster of the Peace and was so glad that she was present in this school.

The Defenders said: «We were waiting for you! We know where Democracy and Help are! Let's go together to the Delta Park, the great park that hosts many species of birds, fish, reptiles and plants. When the group arrived there, they understood they were in a special place: a great peace reigned and everything was calm and clear!

Immediately the group saw Democracy and Help: they were watching a group of flamingos landing in the park. How happy they were to be together again! Democracy and Help told their sisters they found themselves unexpectedly in the Park and for a magic spell they couldn't reach the other sisters! Only the Defenders of Peace can do that because they really live for Peace, Love, Friendship, Freedom, Faith, Trust, Help, Respect, Acceptance,

Gorry, Truth, Equality, Tolerance and Democracy.
So Peace and her sisters thanked the Defenders of Peace of Porto Garibaldi and left for Bulgaria, looking for the other sisters.

In Bulgaria Peace and her friends destroyed war.

Then they went back to Greece, in the land where the journey of Peace started. Peace was not alone. She had with her friends and her sisters. At last war had no power. The little Defenders had won and send their message all over the world!
