Visit to Brussels:

- At 10:00 we arrived to the Atomium and we took some photos. It is very big and beautiful, but we

Brussels Free Time

So from 14:30 we got some free time in Brussels,

then

everybody made groups with their friends. Some people went shopping others went to a bar and drank something. There were kids who went to Hard Rock Café and bought gifts for their families and for themselves. They bought some souvenirs chocolate stores and souvenir shops. We took a lot of pictures from everybody. After we visited Brussels, the bus picked us up to go to Hasselt. We had to drive long but we didn't notice because the ambiance in the bus was amazing. Some people brought their portable speakers with them so we had a lot of good music. Most of the pupils were singing and dancing. Nobody thought it was bad that the trip was so long.

When we arrived at The Century, we needed to sit in mixed groups that meant that we needed to sit together with all the different countries, but that didn't work at all. As welcome snack we got melted cheese with a slide of tomato sauce. Our first plate was a typical vegetable soup. On Monday we had to choose between three plates: vegetarian, meat or fish. The vegetarian plate was a typical Italian food, the ravioli was able to match on the Italian good kitchen. The fish was a skin baked salmon, it was very good with the perfect amount of species and sauce. In the sauce was too little white wine, you could barely tasted. The typical vegetables from Belgium like asparagus and carrots were very pleasing. The fillet of sirloin was a little bit dry but with the tasteful sauce from Belgium's Trappist made an explosion of flavors.

The capital of Belgium is Brussels, a city with a beautiful soul. In our opinion, Brussels is a beautiful place with unforgettable sights and monuments. We saw Belgium's charming mascot MannekePis and his little sister, we spent nice time in the Warandepark and Royal Palace and beautiful sight of night's panorama. In the capital city there were a lot of waffles and chocolate hard to make a choice, but we fell in love with the city. We are sure we will visit Brussels because there is so much to see and do. It is a perfect place to rest but still in active way.
