

Ozel Bahcesehir Arti Anadolu High School

Where is Istanbul?

- Istanbul is the biggest city in Turkey.
- Istanbul is located between Asia and Europe.

What is the history of Istanbul?

- Istanbul's name was "Constantinople" in the past.
- Istanbul was the capital for many old centuries. (Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman)

How is the weather in Istanbul?

Istanbul's weather is mostly cold and rainy in fall, warm in summer and snowy in winter.

What are the famous Turkish cuisines?

Köfte is balls of ground meat and can be served in sandwiches or with salads.

What are the famous Turkish cuisines?

Iskandar Kebab is a popular dish too (though its mostly popular in Bursa). It is long strips of meat mostly cooked in tomato sauce and served with rice and bread.

What are the famous places to visit in Istanbul?

The Blue Mosque was built by Sultan Ahmet from the year 1606 -1613. It is called the blue mosque because of its blue floor and walls. It has nearly 300 glass windows.

What are the famous places to visit in Istanbul?

Grand Bazaar is the Turkey's largest market, it has beautiful Turkish carpets, clothes, spices and other things.

What are the famous places to visit in Istanbul?

The Basilica Cistern is the largest underground water tank found in Istanbul. This tank can store 100000 tons of water.

What are the famous places to visit in Istanbul?

Topkapi Palace is the largest palace in Istanbul. The Ottoman sultans lived in it for more than 400 years.

