

Form: 8th

Subject: Religion and Ethics

Teacher: Şeniz Üstündağ

Topic of the lesson: Patriotism and being martyr

Objectives of the lesson: The importance of Patriotism and to commemorate our Martries..To understand the importance of peace and the meaning of “peace at home peace in the world”The speech of Atatürk

List of required material:Lesson book,Basic Religion information book,Quran

Process of the lesson: teaching and learning activities

The lesson starts with warm-up activity.What is the meaning of the “Patriotism” and “martyr”?The teachers asked the questions and the students try to answer the question at last the students take note the meaning of them.Patriotism:Love the country .Martyr: a muslim person who dies for sacral values .The students try to answer the question”why do we respect our Martries?”In order to give example the teacher read a part of a poem from Mehmet Akif Ersoy

“Ey şehit oğlu şehit, isteme benden makber;
Sana ağuşunu açmış duruyor peygamber.”

Then The lesson goes on The importance of being Martyr in Quran..Some parts which are related with Martyr(Bakara154,Enfal,60) and explain them.

After that the video “ lonely desks” is watched and The teacher asks the main idea of the story? “ what for did they die?

Next the teacher ask “how can we stop the wars?”the students tell their ideas and the teacher talk about the famous Atatürk’s speech” peace at home peace in the world” and the students try to explain the speech.

At the end of the lesson The students will learn the importance of Patriotism and being Martyr and the meaning of life in peace

Additional material (tasks, handouts/worksheets):

1. Video “lonely desks”
2. Mehmet Akif ERSOY (Safahat, s.74)

Sources:

The video “Lonely desks”

Mehmet Akif ERSOY (Safahat, s.74)