

LESSON PLAN

Form: 4b

Subject : Croatian literature

Teacher: Suzana Plevnik

Topic of the lesson: What did a very brave boy Ljuban do?

Objectives of the lesson: To encourage children to act bravely in different situations, to learn about and understand the actions of the main character

List of required material: Story: Train in the snow (textbook), notebook

Process of the lesson - teaching and learning activities:

Introduction – motivating children to listen carefully to the story

Main part – Telling the story

Children express their emotions and opinions about the story

Determining place, time, main characters of the story

Sequencing the events of the plot

Conclusion – Retelling the story in a form of a short composition