

LESSON PLAN

Form: 4b

Subject : Art

Teacher: Suzana Plevnik

Topic of the lesson: A heroic act of the boy called Ljuban

Objectives of the lesson: To teach children to express their ideas using a range of colours (colours of the rainbow), and different techniques (water colours, markers, pen and ink)

List of required material: photos, water colours, markers, papers

Process of the lesson - teaching and learning activities:

Introduction – Preparing required material for painting and drawing, demonstration of the technique that combines water colours with markers

Main part – Motivating children to illustrate the story Train in the Snow (which we listened to and learned about in Croatian literature class) using colours of the rainbow. Teaching children the difference between primary (red, yellow, blue) and secondary colours (orange, purple, green), how to get different shades of colours and to understand the difference between bright and dark colours.

Group work – illustrating the story, being creative

Conclusion – Analysing and evaluating pupils' paintings.
