

In this lesson you will be exploring the web to find out more about Xàtiva and Valencia in preparation for your visit this week.

Open a Word document and write your name/names or a team name at the top, followed by the title "Xativa/valencia Webquest" on the next line. This is where you will be writing the answers to the questions below...

... Follow the instructions carefully, type all your answers in English and use your own words! Don't forget to save your work regularly!

When you have finished, e-mail your work to rclimentmarti@gmail.com

Good luck and have fun!!!

1.- Go to this website <https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/explore/countries/spain/#spain-madrid.jpg> and answer the questions about some basic information about Spain before learning more about Xativa and Valencia.

- a) What is the population of Spain? 46.000.000.
- b) Which countries border Spain? Portugal, France, Andorra.
- c) What are the colours of our flag? Red and Yellow.
- d) How many official languages are there in Spain? Català/Valencià, Spanish, Gallego, Vasc, Aragonés.

2.- Xativa.

Go to <http://www.xativaturismo.com/en/> and answer:

- a) Who said this sentence " Whomsoever in Xàtiva wishes to enter, will have to vanquish its defenders"? The crònica of Jaume I
- b) How is it called the oldest part of the castle? Minor Castle
- c) What did the legend say about Count d'Urgell? The legend was about Urguell's death.
- d) How long does it take the tourist train to ascent the castle? 1-2 hours.
- e) Name 3 things you may find at the Almodí Museum. Felip V del reves, prehistoric objects,
- f) Why is Xàtiva called the city of thousand fountains? Because we have a lot of them.
- g) Name three important festivals held in Xativa and its dates. Fallas Fira d'agost (August), 9 d'Octubre (October)

One of the most famous hotels in Xativa, Montsant, explains well why Philip V is not loved in Xativa. Go to <http://mont-sant.com/en/felipe-v/> and find out why and why citizens of Xativa are called "the burnt"

3.- Valencia

Go to <https://www.visitacity.com/en/valencia/itinerary-by-day/1> and click on a category of your choice (e.g "Valencia top attractions in one day"). Find the picture you like the most and then copy and paste it into your document. Underneath the picture give your opinion about why you like it.

Now imagine you are going to stay until the weekend, go to <https://www.visitvalencia.com/en/events-valencia> and find an event that will be taking place during this week. Write down why you have chosen that event.

