

NAMES: Sophie and Claudia Llopis

- a What is the population of Spain? 49,331,076
- b Which countries border Spain? Andorra, France and Portugal
- c What are the colours of our flag? Red and yellow
- d How many official languages are there in Spain? Castilian Spanish, Basque, Catalan, and Galician

- a Who said this sentence “ Whomsoever in Xàtiva wishes to enter, will have to vanquish its defenders”? Jaume I
- b How is it called the oldest part of the castle? El castell menor
- c What did the legend say about Count d’Urgell? He was imprisoned in the gloomy cell for a long time and was struck blind on leaving by broad daylight and died
- d How long does it take the tourist train to ascent the castle? 20 minutes

Name 3 things you may find at the Almodí Museum. IBERIAN HEAD, ROMAN INSCRIPTIONS and

PALEOLÍTICO EN LA COVA NEGRA

- e Why is Xàtiva called the city of thousand fountains? It has a lot of fountains
- f Name three important festivals held in Xativa and its dates. Corpus christi procession in june, las fallas in march and semana santa in april

Philip V is not loved in Xativa because he burned the city two times and thats why the citizens are called the burnt

it seems relly interesting because it got similarities with the opera hosue in sydney