

- a) What is the population of Spain? 47 million
 - b) Which countries border Spain? Andorra, france, portugal, morocco
 - c) What are the colours of our flag? Red and yellow
 - d) How many official languages are there in Spain? Catalan/valencian, gaelic, castellano, vasque
-
- a) Who said this sentence “ Whomsoever in Xàtiva wishes to enter, will have to vanquish its defenders”?
 - b) How is it called the oldest part of the castle? Minor Castle
 - c) What did the legend say about Count d’Urgell? The legend was about Urguell’s death
 - d) How long does it take the tourist train to ascent the castle? Between 1-2 hours.
 - e) Name 3 things you may find at the Almodí Museum. Philip the Fifth’s turned down painting, prehistorical objects and a lot of paintings made by a lot of artists.
 - f) Why is Xàtiva called the city of thousand fountains? Because it has a lot of fountains from ancient times.
 - g) Name three important festivals held in Xativa and its dates. Fallas (15-20 March), Fira d’Agost (15-20 August), October 9th.

One of the most famous hotels in Xativa, Montsant, explains well why Philip V is not loved in Xativa. Go to <http://mont-sant.com/en/felipe-v/> and find out why and why citizens of Xativa are called “the burnt”

We like this picture because the sunset and the city views are very beautiful.

We’ve chosen this event because we love art and discovering a valencian painter would be very cool