What was the main gain for you from this Erasmus+ week?

22 risposte

Learn how to associate jobs of future with sustainability

I visited a new country where i wasn't before. And talked with new people.

The visit to Trento

Gaining new experineces and making new friends.

Invaluable experiences that broaden my horizon. Met some amazing people, had so much fun.

Definitely new friendships.

I could improve my english speaking skills, I could visit a lot of beautyfull places, and I made bew friendships.

Knowledge

Talk with the others, improve my skills in english :)

Friendships from all around Europe, which I hope to be long-lasting.

Experience

Connecting with each other, connecting with nature

I was amaized by the beautiful city of Riva this was my first time there. It was a great opportunity to build international relationships.

Making new friends, and improving my English

I could measure my capabilities

Knowledge in big data, tourism, agriculture

Learning about professions and their obstacles. Getting to know Riva del Garda.

I saw a beautiful landscape and town and met with beauiful people from other countries!

Meeting new people from other countries and sharing opinions

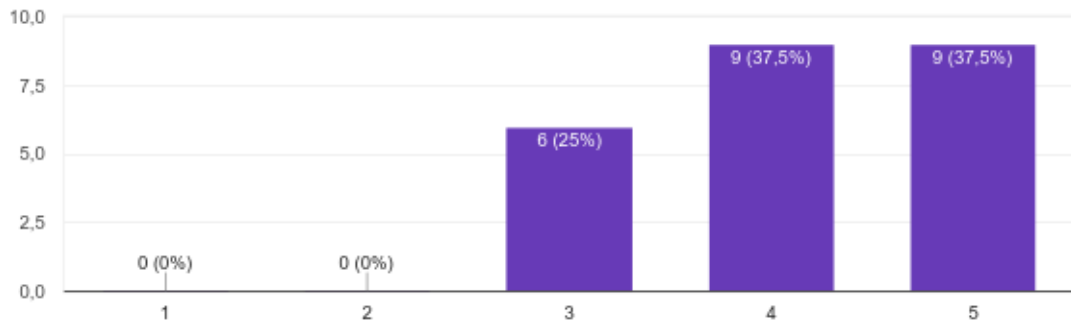

getting out from hoem meeting people and being on fresh air

The comunication

For me, the main gain was to know that I am able to talk with people in English and to hold a conversation in English alone.

About making new friends and relationships during the E+ week: how much are you satisfied about that?

Writing skills

knowing Big data

I learned some basic italian words maybe i will learn a few more later.

Yes, I would like to speak in front of audience more confidently

I practiced foreign languages such as English and French. A listend to presentations about climate change and Data.

My Frenh

Seeing various presenters talk on the program, I'd like to improve my skill of talking in front of large groups, to be able to make a topic interesting for anyone.

I think become much more brave to speak in english.

Italian

Yes 👍

I want to be more flexible and open-minded about future.

Talking really fluently

Socialising with people from other countries was a bit of a challenge to my surprise. I might want to improve these socialising skills.

I think I should practice foreign languages more.

I want to develop my English writing skills

They developed a little

Maybe my leadership skills would need some improvement.

I learned from the professors many interesting facts about global warming, and improved my article writing skills -as we were ought to do it almost every day.

I definitely have to improve my social skills, I'm not all that good at relating with others

The comunication part with new tecnologies and numeric skills

I was really interested about the meet where we discussed the data processing in astronomy. I've always been fascinated by that subject, and I think I will develop my knowledge of that

If you had to keep in mind ONE thing of this week, what would it be?

Unbelievable meetings

Amazing place

Our trip in limone.

To be open-minded with strangers

Lake Garda

View

To be open minded.

The italian atmosphere and my new friends.

Bella ciao

Making new relations

Well in terms of the presentations, the most interesting for me was the so called "bio-control". I have never heard of it before, and it was facinating how this whole process carried out.

The nights we spent together

nature

The exchange and the relation ships

The joy of everyone

The fact that we knew very nice and interesting people

The Free time with Italians, Hungarians and Romanians

The deep conversations with the other students.

The gorgeous view.

Looking around in a new city, getting to know a diffrent culture, meeting with people from other countries and enjoying the gifts of nature is something amazing.

Our trip up to the mountain.

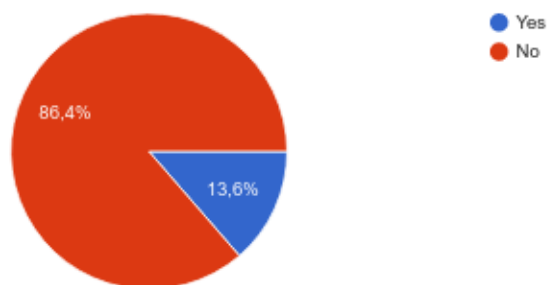

Riva del Garda is a beautiful place

The city's view

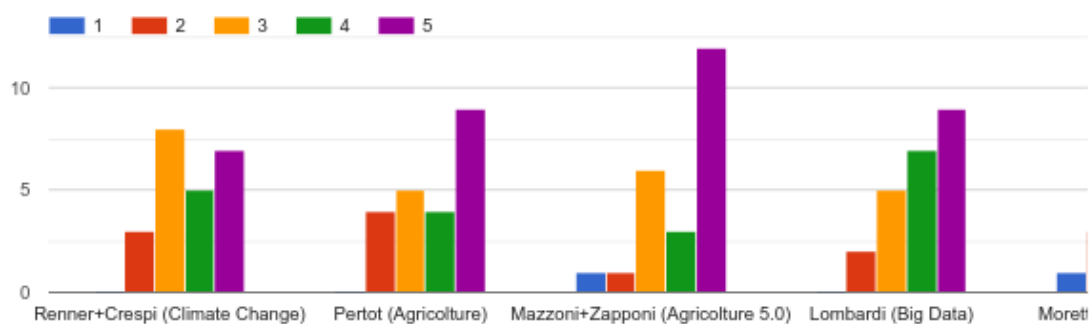

The city view

Was this your first time abroad?
