Kaczka Dziwaczka is a fictional character made by Jan Brzechwa, who is in Akademia Pana Kleksa.

Here is a fragment of Kaczka Dziwaczka:

Near the bush, by the little creek
Lived a duck a little bit freak
Instead of keeping close to the brook
She liked to make little trips on foot.

Once then she went to a barber:
"Please, give me a kilo of cheese,"

As there was pharmacy close
"Five grams of milk", she chose.

NA WYSPACH BERGAMUTACH

Na Wyspach Bergamutach is a song which is also in Akademia Pana Kleksa.

Here is a fragment of Na Wyspach Bergamutach:

Apparently, there's a cat in boots.
On the Bergamuty Islands.

Someone has also seen a donkey,
Which was carried by the ant.

There is a playing player hen
That lays the golden eggs;

The apples in the ermined hats
Grow on the oaks,

There is also an old whale,
That wears the glasses,

There are scholar salmons
In the tomato sauce

NA STRAGANIE

Na straganie is a poem about vegetables on a stall, that have a lot to say.

Here is a fragment of Na straganie:

At the vegetable stall on a market day
This is what they say:

"You may lean on me, Mr Dill,
Especially when you look so ill"

"What can I say, Mr Chive,
I have been here since five!"

Then to that Kohlrabi replied:
"Look at Turnip – she's well-supplied!"

Pea pats Turnip on the belly:
"Do you still feel like a jelly?"

"Oh, thank you, Mr Pea,
Life goes on dopily.,,"
