

Welcome to Dublin, a lively capital as intimate as a town and as welcoming as an Irish pub. With its impeccable combination of classic monuments, an excellent social scene and the natural parks of Dublin Bay and framed by mountains on all sides, this carefree city is an adventure in itself.

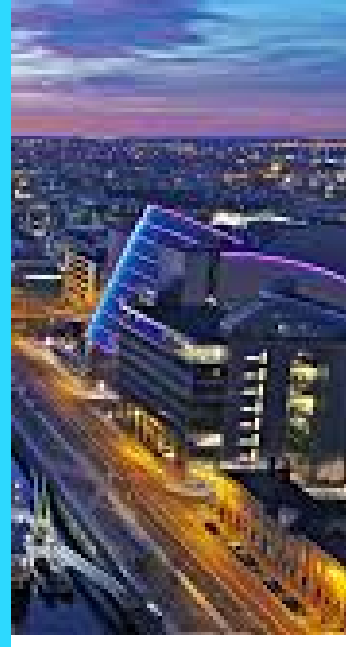

DUBLIN TOURIST OFFICE

37 College Green,
Dublin, Irlanda
+353 86 316 9788
<http://www.touristoffice.dublin.com>

DUBLIN

IF YOU WANT TO BE HAPPY
COME TO LIVE IN DUBLIN

WHY DUBLÍN?

WHERE TO GO

In Dublin there are numerous sites to visit from the Dublin Castle to the Femix Park.

WHAT TO DO

You can also take a nice walk by its extensive and beautiful river in the center of the city.

WHERE TO EAT

One of the best rated restaurants is the Boojum, a vegetarian restaurant.

If you have children, the ideal restaurant is Beshoff's, one of the best rated restaurants for adults and children to eat well.

some basic facts

Dublin is the capital of Ireland., It is located on the East Coast of Ireland and the spoken language is English.

Dublin is the capital of the Republic of Ireland and the most populous city on the island. It is located near the center of the coast, on the Irish Sea, at the mouth of the Liffey River and in the center of Dublin County.

We aim to let you see and do everything the city offers.

