

Project "Leading Lights" (visit to Braga)

PERGUNTAS

RESPOSTAS 37

37 respostas

RESUMO

INDIVIDUAL

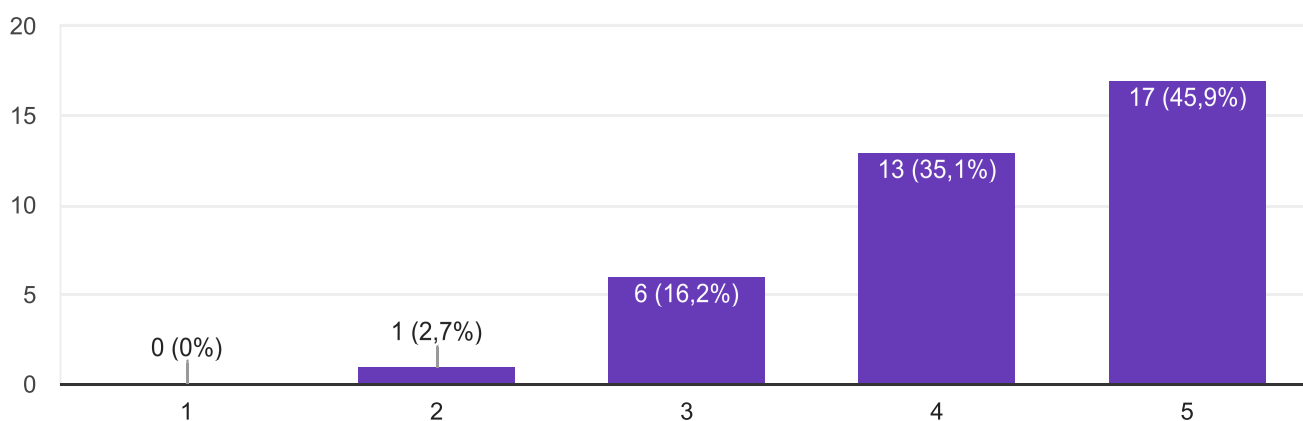

Aceitar respostas

1. How concerned are you about human rights issues in today's world?

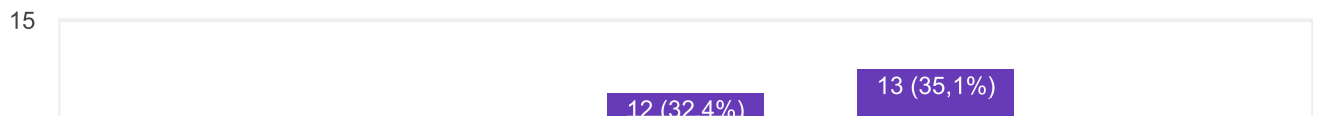

37 respostas

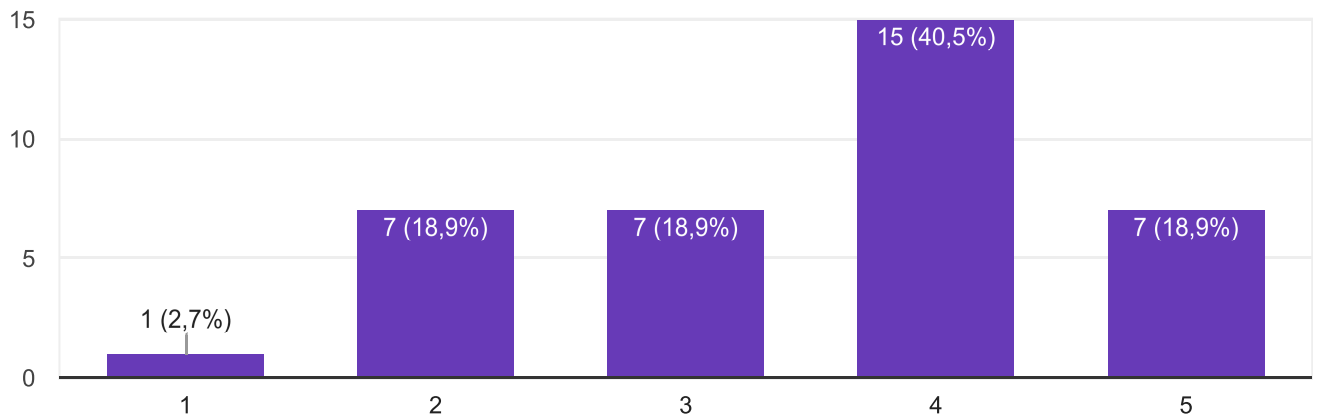

2. How aware are you of integration/equality problems in your city/school?

37 respostas

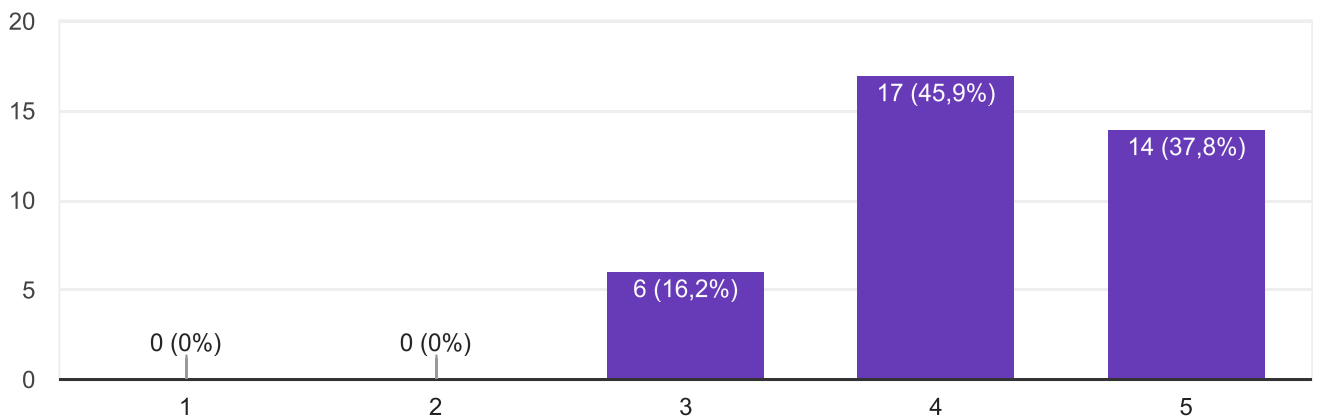

3. How active are you as a human rights defender?

37 respostas

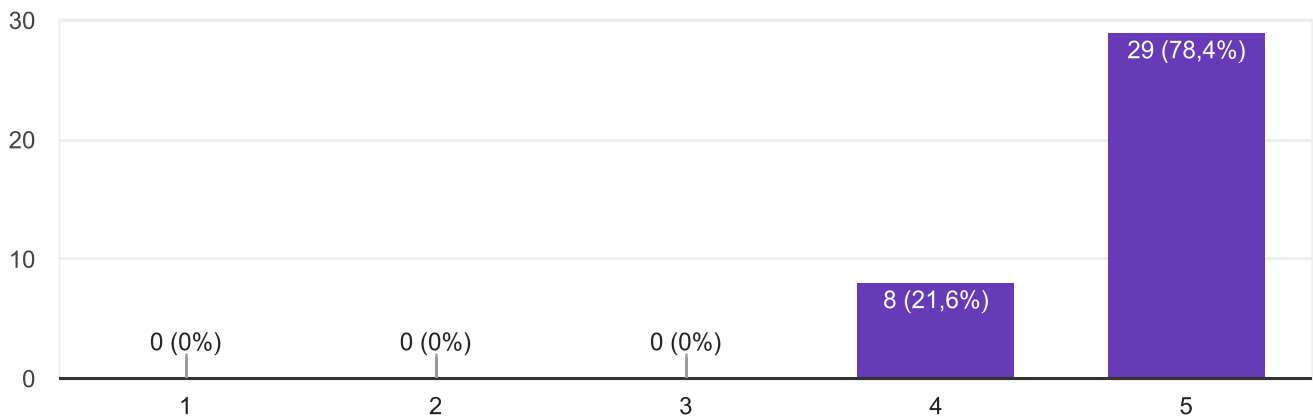

4. How prepared do you feel to promote integration and equality in your school/city?

37 respostas

5. How motivated are you to participate in this project?

37 respostas

6. What do you expect from this project?

37 respostas

- To learn and teach new things
- I expect to encounter new lifestyles from the different countries that are coming to visit us
- I hope to meet new people and new cultures. Demonstrate the culture of my country.
- I hope with this project to become aware of other cultural realities and to share experiences
- I expect to have a fun time
- I expect learn new things about other cultures and develop my English.
- Try to be more active about the human rights
- i expect to make new friends
- Get more educated on accessibility and get the opportunity to educate others, in my school and country as well as internationally. I'd also love to make international friends and learn about different cultures.
- I want to meet new friends and know more about the culture of the rest of the guys.
- I expect to learn a lot from everyone from other countries and learn about their cultures. I also expect to teach foreigners something when this project ends!
- help me learn more english
- Meet people with different cultures
- Eu espero que este projeto me faça desenvolver as minhas capacidades linguísticas e sociais. Acho uma iniciativa diferente e muito interessante.

I'm very happy to take part to this project, and first of all I expect to improve my English, secondly to expand my point of view and I'm looking forward to getting to know a new culture; and I hope to learn more about equality and non-discrimination

I expect to learn new ideas, different ways of seeing the world, different traditions, different expressions, creating friendships and above all I hope that this project helps me to become a better person, and helps sensitize different communities to the importance of human rights and its fulfillment. ,

I want to learn new things

A good experience and to see what life is like outside of the UK to meet new friends and learn about other cultures

To gain a higher understanding of integration/equality problems in my area and how I could help

I expect to learn a lot of new things and share with new people

I hope to meet new cultures and new friends, learn to speak better English

I expect to meet people from other european countries (partners of the project). Together talk about "people with special needs" and compare the different ways used to get their life more easier.

I expect this project to be a way to spread the importance of human rights, comparing opinions and solutions from different countries and, thus, different realities

Meet people of others countries, their cultures and show them our culture

Learning more about new cultures and getting new friends

I expect better human rights.

I think it will be exciting and unforgettable !

To meet some great people and to learn more about different cultures and perspectives.

Deeper understanding of human rights issues and integration.

Deeper understanding of human rights issues in my area

To learn more about how people with additional needs are treated in other countries learn a lot of things

Not sure exactly

I expect to have a good time

Speak fluently English and make friends from different places.

From this project, I expect to make a foreign person see my country from a teenager perspective to another. I also would like to have a good time with someone else other than my routine company

7. What have you done to prepare for this meeting?

37 respostas

Plan activities with my friends

Since the trip is going to be in my city, I've been preparing a "Tourist guide" where I'm going to show and tell our city's most important places and history.

I'm preparing my room so that my classmate is comfortable, I made a list of what we could do together after school

I collaborated in the preparation of these meetings

Improving my english

I haven't done anything in special I am just anxious to meet the other student.

We made projects to promote the acceptance of the differences of people and cultures training my speaking

I've started to educate myself about accessibility. I even made a video about it! I've started talking to my hostfamily and I'm currently learning Portuguese.

I am taking some particular english classes to improve that language

I talked to my italian mate and I've bought him a portuguese gift!

a lot of things

Prepare a work that inform the problems that have disabilities people

Tenho falado com a estudante que irei acolher e falamos imenso sobre as comidas que ela vai provar, vou tentar mostrar-lhe o ambiente na freguesia onde vivo e levá-la a alguns locais importantes da nossa cidade.

I think that this meeting will give me the opportunity to discuss about some problems related to discrimination; My teachers and I for this project have made a video about special needs in our school I have interviewed one of our special needs students to verify how he lives his ordinary life.

for the preparation of this meeting I have spoken with my future guest, read about her country and prepared different activities to show her the differences between our countries.

Practise my english

I have interviewed people in school such as teachers and high achieving students to add to our team's video

as a group we have made a video to present in Portugal

I have work at lunch times and after school

We worked on the theme of people with special needs and we prepared a presentation

I tried to improve my English

We've done a diaporama

For this meeting I interviewed a special needs student of my school and his teacher in order to understand the real problems linked to the theme of the meeting

I study more my English to communicate more with her a presentation, packing and get to know my hostfamily

We have studied material with other students.

I've talk with my mate

We've prepared a video presentation and I've talked to the girl I'm staying with.

Made a video concering intergtation of SEN pupils in our school.

Made a video concerning integration of SEN pupils in our shool

Made a vidoes of how we treat people with additional needs in our school inform me on how my city is in the issues we are dealing with

Made a presentation

I prepared exhibitions

I participated and cooperated in the reunions.

For this, I've prepared where we are going for the week and I've cleaned up my house

8. What do you expect to learn from this international meeting?

37 respostas

The students culture

I hope to know the differences between our city with thw others.

a lot of things

I hope to make new friends, share experiences and ideals

Diferent cultures

I hope learn new things about n the other cultures, develop my English and communicate with people with differents perspectives of life.

Meet new friends and cultures to be more tolerant about that what is their life like, their habits

Many new things about accessibility and people with disabilities, as well as things about different cultures.

As I said before, I am really interested in knowing more about the culture of the rest of the guys. Also, I hope I can improve my english.

I expect to learn about people's language, culture and all the things that are coming with it

I hope to learn a lot

How live people that have problems like blind...

Eu espero aprender muita coisa, mas sobretudo a cultura deles e as coisas que vêm todos os dias e o quão diferentes são os nossos dias.

I expect to learn a lot of stuff, about non-discrimination, and to see what other countries think about this topic.

I expect to learn so many new things, learn to speak new languages and expressions of them, different traditions from different nationalities that I will have the opportunity to get in touch with, and I hope that we all learn the importance of respect for different cultures

Learn new things about integration and human rights

I expect to learn about different cultures and see how they deal with discrimination

About equality issues in other countries and possible solutions to them

How other countries handle the same issues

I expect to learn what means are put in place to promote these people's integration

I hope to learn new cultures, new knowledge and new ways of thinking

I expect to learn more about "people with special needs". How in Europe we manage them. What everyone can do to help them, to fight the discrimination.

I hope and expect to learn innovative ways to solve the integration issue linked with the special needs students

Meet other cultures, meet more people and involve my English more about new cultures and more about how people promote equality in their school and city

I expect to meet people from other countries that think the same way than I do.

I expect to learn a little bit of the languages that participate in the project, meet new people, and leave all the prejudices.

What differences and similarities there are between our cultures.

How other countries deal with the same issues.

How other countries deal with the same issues

How other countries deal with the same issues as us how is equality in other countries and how to improve

How things are done in Portuguese schools and maybe some Portuguese

I expect to learn a lot of English and another cultures

Learn more about different cultures and about social integration.

I expect to enhance my experience and knowledge about a foreign country and I also want to see how tourists think of my country

9. What can you do to contribute to the success of this meeting?

37 respostas

Be active, and be there for any situation

I can be as much available as I can to help with everything.

I think that the friendship and the bond that we are going to create for each other is already a great contribution

I made my home with my family available to welcome colleagues from other countries

Communicate with the visitors

To contribute to the success of this meeting I should be nice to the person that I am going to receive and be comprehensive

I can give my help for everything

help my new friend to feel at home

Start preparing for it beforehand.

Enjoying the most as possible this meeting and try to make the connections with the others as easier as I could.

I can ready to embrace different opinions and cultures

Can I help the student to understand some Portuguese

Prepare a work that inform the problems that have disabilities people

Eu farei tudo o que estiver ao meu alcance para contribuir para uma ótima viagem destes estudantes. Já combinei com outra colega fazer um encontro a noite com a estudante que ela vai acolher e a minha e fazermos uma pequena festa onde nos possamos conhecer melhor.

I can contribute to this meeting showing examples of non-discrimination into my school and studying a lot this theme with the students from the other school coming to Braga.

In my point of view the most important thing for the success of this project is respect.

Collaborate and help each other

I can put forward my ideas and talk to people well

Listen to everyone's ideas and contribute my own

A positive attitude

I can give the best of myself

I can introduce my country's culture and help with whatever it takes

I can broadcast the messages of the meeting at school and why not on social medias.

I can contribute to the success of this meeting with my own opinion about human rights and, obviously, explaining the Italian reality linked to them

Accompany my colleague, show you the city, our cultures and our customs be active and get to know everyone

I will take a part to this meeting actively

If we all are nice and friendly, this meeting can be awesome because the idea of meeting new people, being in a new home and visiting new places is an exceptional opportunity.

An open mind and a want to get involved.

Be an active member and being proactive in the learning experience.

Be a more active member of integration rights of my fellow pupils

Share my experiences with SEN pupils

bring ideas to improve

.

Be sympathetic

Participate in the activities.

I can be 24/7 with the person, try to talk to her as much as I can and to guarantee she has a good time

10. What do you think you should be asked to do after this meeting?

37 respostas

Manage schedules or help with translating

We should be asked how/if this trip changed the way we see our own city.

I do not know how satisfied were the participants after the meeting

Talk with other friends about my experience

If they liked

Maybe try to persuade more people to participate in this type of projects because they are really important to us

write my opinion about the experience, how it went and what I learned

At least to keep contact on the new international friends

Do you think you have learned enough?

I should be asked to be active and cooperate with society so I can help people from all different cultures

Whether we live far or not

Keep the contact with my partner

Uma pequena apresentação a outros alunos para se interessarem sobre este projeto.

After this meeting I think to expand what I've learned to all my classmates and into my school.

I think that after this meeting we should be invited to a next meeting, in my point of view these projects are essential for the discoveries and relations between different countries, these gestures help to maintain respect for difference and that cultivate the education and respect for human rights and help us grow as people.

Maybe about what I have learnt with this project

I think that we should promote Erasmus to the the school to show what an incredible organisation it is

Tell my peers about my trip

To continue to help with the range of issues

I think we should be asked to do a report of this meetings

...

I think I should be asked to do an homework on this, and broadcast the messages as much as possible.

After this meeting, of course, I'll be ready to defend special needs students' rights and, in general, all human rights

If I enjoyed the experience

A sum up about the meeting and what did i learn during the meeting

I should act with human rights.

Maybe take concience about social problems and integration.

Tell people about things I've learned.

Report to the school on our experiences and share the information with the wider student body.

Report to the school on our experiences and share the information with the wider student body

To report back to the school and the wider student body

apply the things learned to my day to day

Not sure

What things have I learned? When are we going to meet again ?

I think should be given a chance to go to other country to the people who received students here.

i think we should meet the countries, like finland and wales

11. Where are you from?

37 respostas

