

IDEA 4

FACILITIES FOR DOGS

This idea of social entrepreneurship is a company that helps abandoned dogs giving food, a place to sleep, and places to play. In addition, they offer it to the public so that they can buy them for little money and with that money collected to be able to continue caring to the rest of the dogs and to pay the facilities that these animals enjoy. There are several companies distributed by each city so that they can accommodate all possible dogs