

IDEAS 1

Raise awareness to the children about the environment

This idea of social entrepreneurship can be applied to any sector. It consists in involving the children in organizations that look for a social good, carrying out campaigns, workshops and activities of garbage collection, tree planting, ...(activities that they like to do).