

IDEA 8

CLASSES OF LANGUAGES

This idea of social entrepreneurship is extracurricular classes specialized in languages that are carried out in some schools by people from other countries who really know that language in order to teach them to children. They can attend them the children of each course who have more than a 7 in English or fraces according to the class they want to attend