

MONTSERRAT CABALLÉ

She was a lyric singer of Spanish opera, considered one of the greatest sopranos of the 20th century. Her vast repertoire exceeded a hundred works and ranged from baroque to verismo.

He made his debut in many theaters and shared the stage with all the great artists, although he claimed to have a special chemistry with three of them: José Carreras, Pavarotti, and Plácido Domingo.

Why this person is important?

Montserrat Caballé will always be remembered for her prodigious voice. Considered one of the greatest sopranos of the 20th century, Caballé would always be a faithful diva at the Gran Teatro del Liceu, where she began her 'reign' in 1962 with 'Arabella', although her performances have been heard for years on the main stages. of all the world.

Why this person is inspirational for me?

This person is an example to follow, she is a very brave woman who undertook in the world of music and managed to reach the top.

