when they were cooking, they use chimney to get the smoke out of the kitchen.

this little place is called black kitchen, because it's small and all the smoke from cooking was gathering on the ceiling and walls.

windows in the kitchen didn't really help with the smoke, because they were too small.

DINING ROOM

- the house was small, so the dining room and the kitchen were together, they were basically eating and cooking in the same room.

BEDROOM

- the whole family was sleeping in the same room and they had small beds made out of wood and they were sleeping on the strow.

BATHROOM

- they actually didn't have a bathroom, all they had was just one pail and they used it for everything.
