OUR FLAG

THE FLAMENCO

Flamenco became one of the symbols of the Spanish national identity during the Francoism, it is associated with Andalusia to promote national unity and attract tourism

We think is a symbol of our country, because it is the history of our country

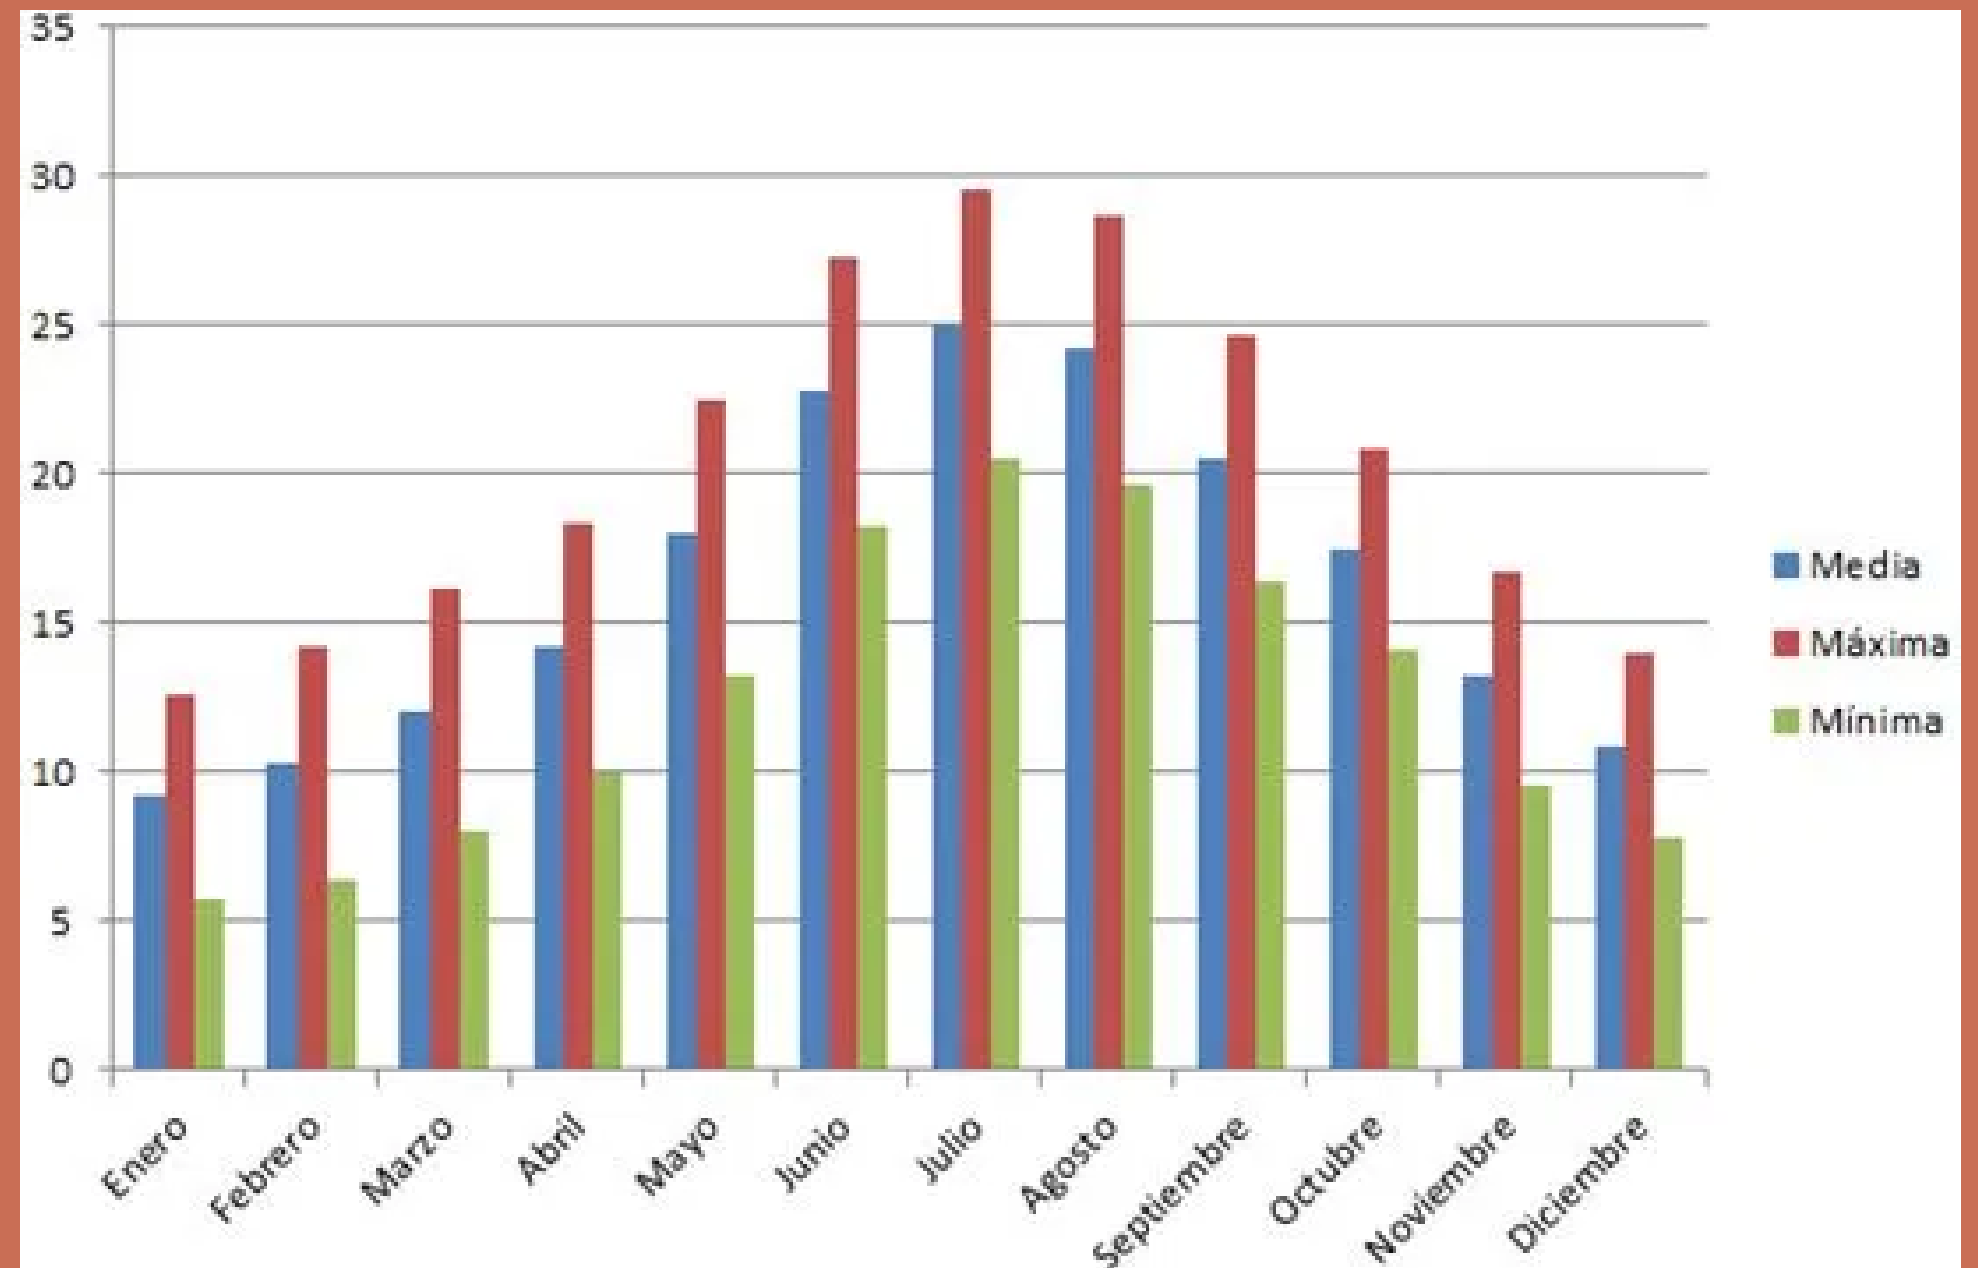

The types of climate in Spain are very diverse. And geography is very important. The peninsula is in a temperate zone.

Spain doesn't have homogeneous climatic, the north has milder summers and wet and cold winters, while in the south the summers are hot, but the winters are generally quite pleasant. Spain is one of the warmest and sunniest destinations in Europe throughout the year, with its attractive climate due to the country's location between the Atlantic and the Mediterranean.

GREETINGS IN SPANISH

GOOD MORNING = BUENOS DÍAS

GOOD AFTERNOON = BUENAS TARDES

GOOD NIGHT = BUENAS NOCHES

HOW ARE YOU? = ¿CÓMO ESTÁS?

Amor constante más allá de la muerte, de Francisco de Quevedo

Cerrar podrá mis ojos la postrera
Sombra que me llevare el blanco día,
Y podrá desatar esta alma mía
Hora, a su afán ansioso lisonjera;

Mas no de esotra parte en la ribera
Dejará la memoria, en donde ardía:
Nadar sabe mi llama el agua fría,
Y perder el respeto a ley severa.

Alma, a quien todo un Dios prisión ha sido,
Venas, que humor a tanto fuego han dado,
Médulas, que han gloriosamente ardido,

Su cuerpo dejará, no su cuidado;
Serán ceniza, mas tendrá sentido;
Polvo serán, mas polvo enamorado.

THE HAM

The ham from Extremadura, along with that from Guijuelo (Salamanca), the Sierra de Huelva and Los Pedroches (in Córdoba) is one of the star products of Spain.

Recipe of the salmorejo

SALMOREJO: Salmorejo is one of the most typical meals in Spain.

The recipe:

Ingredients: 1 Kg. of tomatoes
200 grs. of Telera Bread Cordobesa
100 grs. Extra Virgin Olive Oil
1 clove of Montalbán Garlic
10 grs. of Salt

"NO HAY MAL QUE POR BIEN NO VENGA"

That is one of the many proverbs typical of Spain. I like it because of the message it gives, that from the bad you can always extract something good.
