We offer you a way to give your home a personal touch. We refresh old frames on the basis of sanding, painting and varnishing them. We attach a string to the frame and put clothes pegs on it. This way you can hang your photos on the wall in a original way. It's a sustainable, original and stylish way to decorate your home.

We are a group of young people who find it important to recycle. We want to prove by means of our product that second-hand items should not look cheap or bad. We pimp our frames, making them look completely new again. They are finished products. This proves that being sustainable doesn't need to be difficult!
