

Dear futures,

We wish a future without pandemics like the one that has been bothering us for two years and we wish a world characterized only by love, peace and brotherhood. We hope for a greener planet full of life and children with abilities and ambitions that will try to make it better. Finally, we believe that efforts will be made to eradicate racism and that all the people will have the same rights in coming years.

Olga Sioki and Katerina Sotiropoulou