

The importance of protecting the environment is significant. Unfortunately though, due to many factors the environment has been negatively affected. We should take drastic actions in order to save the environment, because otherwise, the next generations, you, will face adverse consequences. The environment will always be the priority, therefore, for your own sake never stop protecting it!!!

Athina-Maria Tseleponi