

Madeira diary

on the first day we thought first that we wouldn't get our luggage but after we got them everything was cool, we met our host and his parents who we really cool, after that we went to see the mountains and drove around and then we ate burgers at a restaurant on the second day we ate a good breakfast and then went to the school and from the school we went to madeiras parliament house and there was a debate that we finnish guys absolutely won after that we went home and from there we went to mcdonalds at the shopping mall to chill out on the third day we went to the school and did stuff there from there we went to a park to hang out and from there me, alex, rita and ani went to a seafood restaurant to eat octopus and after that we had to read these poems while the teachers had a wine tasting after that we went to hang out in the city on the fourth we went to levada walk which was really cool the landscapes around there were one of the most beautiful I have ever seen in my life, we took pictures at the waterfall and walked through tunnel that was probably

on the fifth day we went to the laurisilva forest which was in the north side of the island and after that we went to a village and had lunch there in a restaurant it was really crappy and after that we went to the beach and we swim there and of course we dropped wet sand on rita and ani when they we sunbathing I don't know why but they didn't seem to like it
