

THE BARLETTA CITY

THIS IS BARLETTA FLAG:

Country: Italy

Region: Apulia

Area - Total: 149,35 km²

Province: BT

Population: 93.123 Country:

TEATRO CURCI

The theater of Barletta, named after the creator Giuseppe Curci, is located in Corso Vittorio Emanuele and constitutes an important cultural container within the city. It is located in the city center, in front of the Town Hall

ERACLIO

The Colossus of Barletta, better known as Heraclius is a gigantic bronze statue, 4.50 m high, dating back to the 5th century. Located in front of the left side of the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher of Barletta, the work probably depicts the emperor Theodosius II and was perhaps erected by Valentinian III in Ravenna in 439.

THE CASTLE OF BARLETTA

The Castle of Barletta Is a big construction complete by Federico II di Svevia Is located in the villa of barletta. Inside the castel there is a Museum open to the public. The history of Barletta has its roots in the classical era, in a period between the 4th and 3rd centuries. The urban center instead has its origins in the early Middle Ages, with the arrival of the Cannesi and the Canosini first and with a expansion, during the Norman era. The city was the site of various dominations, alternating from the 11th to the 17th century, and saw the presence of Normans, Swabians, Angevins, Aragonese and Spaniards.

CATHEDRALE

The cathedral basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore is the cathedral of Barletta. Located in the historic center of the city and is the oldest fulcrum of the religious life of the town.

Santa Maria Maggiore is the result of a series of architectural stratifications which have occurred over the centuries..

THE CELEBRATION OF THE VIRGIN MARY

The celebration of the Virgin Mary "dello Sterpeto", principal patron saint of Barletta, is set for 8 May and is celebrated with a degree of solemnity throughout the city

Since 1732 the people of Barletta have been transporting the icon of the Madonna dello Sterpeto to the city for the month of May.

BASEMENT:

On 13 February 2020, the 517th anniversary of the fight between the Italian 13 and French 12 soldiers. The challenge is still celebrated today. The municipality of Barletta dedicates 2 events to it, one on the anniversary and another in the first week of September. The knights line up in 2 files and load the spear in rest. Once on the ground, the soldiers attack their opponents' horses. The challenge turns into a hand-to-hand fight, which sees Fieramosca beating Motte.

THE BEST BARS, RESTURANT, HOTEL IN BARLETTA

BAR CAVOUR:

RESTURANT VECCHIO FORNO:

BAR CASTELLO:

HOTEL ITACA:

