

My erasmus experience

Austria Wien

These photos represent our moments in Austria, before we go to the Czech Republic.

The city was completely wonderful but according to the teacher it is one of the ugliest parts of Austria.

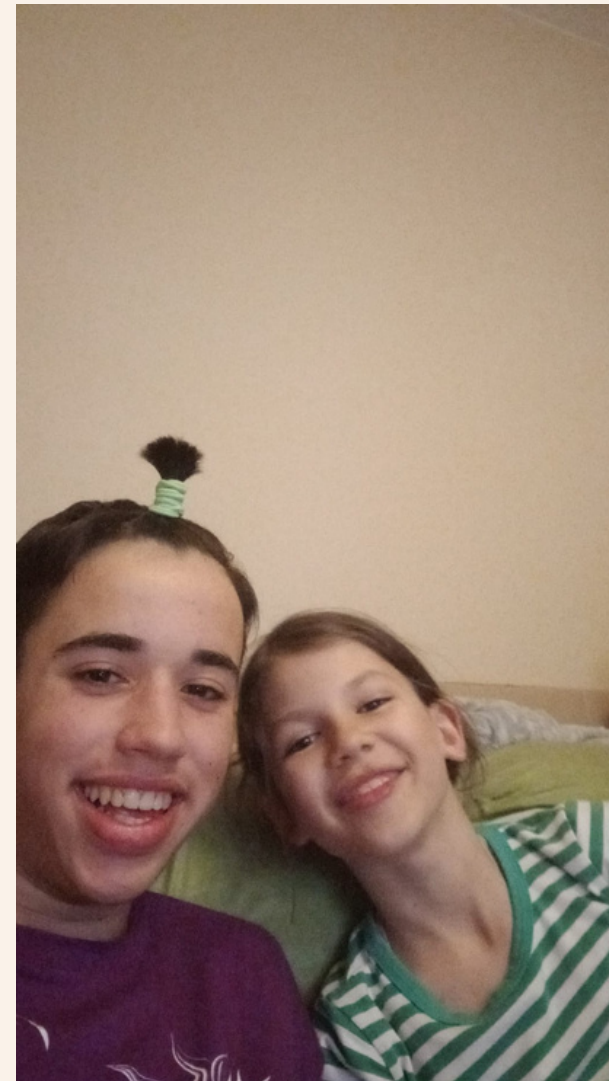

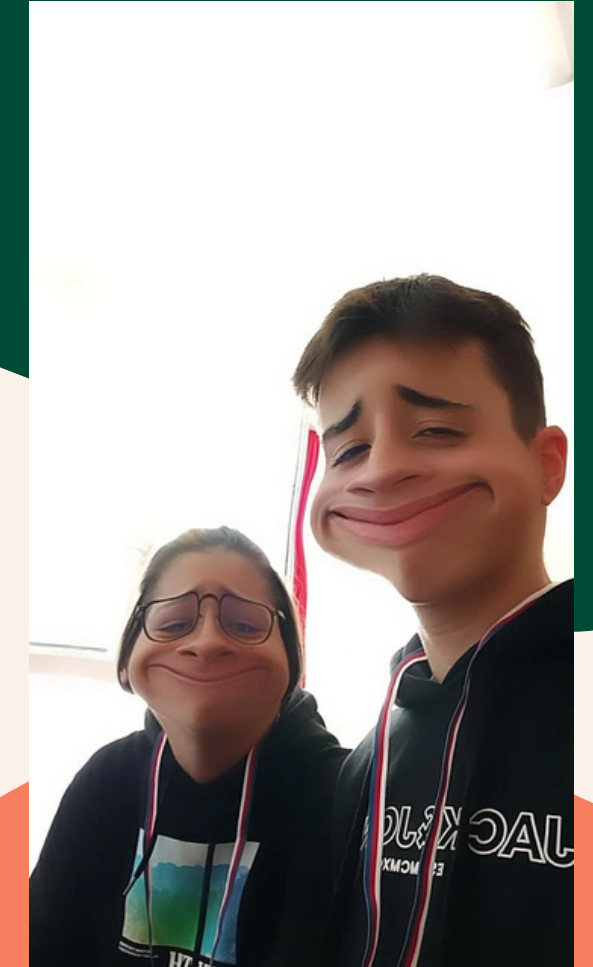

Czech Republic-Arrival

These photos show our arrival in the Czech Republic.

Only Josef and Lucie were here because the children and their father were also at home waiting for me.

The background features three large, overlapping, organic shapes: a light purple shape on the left, a dark green shape at the top right, and an orange shape at the bottom right. The text is centered over these shapes.

The End
