учителка усмихната добра прегръща ни с нежност и обич голяма в утрината светлина .

твоето име звучи.
Детски свят, Детски свят
слънчева люлка си ти.

да срещаме трудности с радост и песен да сбъдваме нашите мечти.

3. Знания даватни и ни разкриват
за всичко пред нас и до нас с мъдрост даряват ни и ни съветват

Presentation of the hero of Bulgaria in “M. A. G. I. C.” project trough an album, e-book, doll, martenitsas and greeting cards.

Wounded, Bayan left a red mark of his blood on the end of the strand just before he release the bird to fly and find his brothers. In this very moment Asparuh appeared on the other side of the river along with his army.
The brave soldiers crossed the river and defeated the Khazarians, saving Bayan and Huba. When the brothers and sister got united at last, Asparuh took a thread of the white-read strand from the bird's foot and tied it around the wrists of each of his people. They called this martenitsa and decided that from this day on the white-read thread shall never be cut. The martenitsa became the symbol of luck, health, love, and joy, which unites Bulgarians all over the world on the 1st of March every year.

1.Our hero Baba Marta in the Bulgarian traditions is a symbol of spring and brings a wish for health and fertility at the beginning of the new cycle in nature. Baba Marta and the month of March are associated with many customs and holidays dedicated to the coming spring. The most famous custom associated with Baba Marta is the wearing of people, young animals and trees with Martenitsa (twisted white and red thread) on March 1, the day of Baba Marta's arrival. Rites for the persecution of snakes and lizards and fortune-tellers related to some migratory birds are performed throughout the month.
Martenitsa is worn until one sees a stork that is a harbinger of spring, then it hangs on a fertile flowering tree to be a fertile year.
