Who is Raggie?

*Raggie is a talkative, thinking and relatively self-acting rag doll.

Raggie was an ordinary toy until one day it began to speak. Since that time Anu and Raggie became inseparable! Raggie has taken part in all kind of Anu's adventures: walking on the roofs and swimming, diving and taking a taxi, staying alone at home and other exciting things!

Why Raggie?

Life has changed a lot in the meantime, but Eno Raud has written this book so great that it has been a favorite of children for generations.

That's why we decided that we want to share our loved book character with you.

Raggie philosophy is family values and true friendship. The strong brother-sister love and friendship between Anu and Raggie - friendship that last forever, even when you are grown up.

You will find it all in our beloved book.

Story of Raggie

Mart wanted to do something different for his little sister Anu's birthday.

With the help of his grandmother, he sewed a doll. At first glance, Raggie was a pretty ordinary doll and Mart was disappointed. „This is not a real doll at all“ he said. „It is a queer thing- rags all over- Raggie.“

But suddenly there was a thin voice peeped:
Don't cry. Of course I'm not a beauty, but otherwise I am quite a good in sport.

„What is your name?“ asked Mart

„Raggie“ said the doll. „You called me so yourself“.

„But how come that you can speak? asked Mart.

Raggie said: „You wish to please
Anu with all your heart and you made me with such great love
that I have become alive!
