About Lithuanian circle-game Jurgelis (little George) meistrelis

The participants of the game go in a circle. Before that, one person has to be chosen to play Jurgelis. So Jurgelis stands in the middle of the wheel. Those in the circle sing: "Master Jurgeli, teach your children, Master Jurgeli, teach your children."

Jurgelis has to show some action. This means that he shows his "children" what to do and how to do it.

Players in the round must repeat the actions shown by Jurgelis while singing: "And you, children, should do, as Jurgelis asks you to". Jurgelis is then replaced by another player.
