

Rijksmuseum

Visit the Rijksmuseum and have a look at some masterpieces in the Gallery of Honour.

The Gallery of Honour is an extended corridor directed towards a clear focal point:
the Night Watch Gallery.

On view in the side alcoves are masterpieces by the great artists of the seventeenth century. Framing the alcoves are cast iron beams inscribed with the names of the famous painters of the age.

Rijksmuseum (photos taken from: <https://www.rijksmuseum.nl/nl>)

1) Go to this webpage and press “VISIT”. Here you can have a look at some great paintings and listen to extra information about these great works of art.

Go to: <https://www.rijksmuseum.nl/en/masterpieces-up-close>

2) After that, do the assignment: “Key Challenge” and press “PLAY”. Find the keys in the online museum and discover the hidden word. If you join the Key Challenge, you’ll get the chance to win a cool prize! Have fun!

Entrance Hall >

< Gallery of Honour