Rooms

You can participate in group discussions, also called groupchats or rooms.

Entering a room

1. Click on this button to join a room.
2. Groupchat address: Enter here the address of the room you want to join in. Your group room's address looks like this: smallworldgroupX@room.etwinning.ovh where X is your group number.
3. Nickname: you are free to enter whatever username you wish, but it would be nice to choose your first name and last name (ex: chris.pratt) so that everyone knows who is who.
4. Join the room by clicking here.

Sending messages

1. Type your message here.
2. With two buttons, you can add an emoji or share a file (it can be any type of file, maximum size being 100MB)
3. Click on Send when you're done writing your message.

Note: Shift + Enter will allow you to add a line break.

You can mention people in your message so they get a notification. Just click on their nickname in the participants list, or add it manually if you know it. You can also start to write its first letters and tap on the tab key of your keyboard to have a suggestion list of nicknames.

Bookmarking a room

You can bookmark rooms in order to join them in later easily and to keep them from one client to another.

To do so, simply click on the flag icon on the top-right corner of the room page.

You can also mouse over the room's name in the Groupchats list at the left pannel and click on the flag icon that appears there (1st icon).

You can find your bookmarked rooms in the left menu.

Direct chat: 1 to 1 conversation

You can also chat with someone in private, in a 1:1 discussion with only the two of you participating.
