to Katerini for the short-term exchange of pupils (C4) which is part of the Erasmus+ project K229.

The activities of the exchange are expected to take place in Katerini from 8th March to 15th March 2020.

The activities which will take place will be related to discovering and enjoying the Greek heritage and culture. The Basque students and teachers will have the opportunity to meet their partners in person and exchange cultural elements. Visits to archaeological sites and natural monuments in the area and nearby cities will also take place. Our Basque visitors will have the chance to experience the Greek way of life and taste the Greek cuisine.

The Greek teachers Maria Dampratzidou and Anna Persidou together with the pedagogical team will join these activities.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Athanasios Konstantinou
