Adventure on Mars

Once upon a time there was a small boy and a small pig.
Their names were Peter and Piggy. They lived on a farm with their parents.
Their dream? To explore Mars.

But they were too young for that, so they explored the forest instead!

One day, as they were exploring the forest as was their habit, they saw a wolf, “The Wolf of the Forest”, a wild wolf. And the wolf wanted to eat them!

He was about to, when suddenly he had an idea that made him change his mind. He convinced the two friends to go with him to see a rocket, a big rocket that had landed in the forest the night before. The wolf was really interested in it and he wanted them to help him check it out. You see, he wanted to go to MARS as well!

Peter and Piggy couldn't believe their ears. And when they got there, they couldn't believe their eyes either!!! And they were kind of worried, too. After all, he WAS a wolf...

On the rocket there were strange symbols which looked like eggs...but they were exciting too!

They entered the rocket and everything was nice: there was a big room with lots of buttons and very comfortable, soft seats. They put on some space outfits that they found in a special cupboard and... off they went!

The three of them became good friends. Peter could finally see the space! When they reached Mars, they made a swimming-pool on the Red Planet. The three friends absolutely loved Mars. They had a wonderful holiday together.

When they finally got back home, they had lots of stories to tell. The three friends loved to say out loud – “A holiday on Mars has no limits!!”

Just like friendship.
