Say Cheese

Once upon a time, in a forest with lots of trees, flowers and a variety of animals, lived three very different creatures: a duck, a lion and an elf. Donald Duck was a very nice guy. He was always willing to help everyone that was adventurous and an explorer. Lionous, the old lion, was rude, grumpy and vindictive but at the same time, he was capable of being charming and a bit vain. The Elf was called Victoria. She was a nice, funny “girl”, a brunette with green eyes. She loved wearing white shoes and pink dresses with her wings covered in glitter. She was also a little dumb.

These three creatures had something in common – they were extremely greedy! They loved food more than anything in the world!

One day while they were walking in the grassland, thinking of food as usual, they ran into a magic tree. Donald Duck had heard about this tree! He knew that if you said “cheese” three times, the tree would give you anything you wanted to eat. So they all shouted: “cheese, cheese, cheese!” And out of the tree jumped all the food they wanted! They were ecstatic!!! They ate and ate all day long!

But after a few days of eating nonstop, Donald Duck started to feel sick and to throw up, because he had indigestion. His friends were a bit sick too and didn’t know what to do. They were in the middle of the woods where no one could find them, there were no hospitals nearby and all they had was a bag full of food.

Lionous was so, so worried! Suddenly, he remembered what his mum had told him a long, long time ago, about another ancient tree that had special healing powers. He knew he would find it near the river, so he ran like a bullet! When he found it, he went back and with Victoria’s help dragged Donald to the tree. The tree cured Donald and taught them all a lesson: they shouldn’t eat all the time, but instead they should take care of their health. So, thanks to the magic tree, the three friends lived healthily ever after!
