The race

I was in my house and I was reading the book with Lightning McQueen's awards-my favorite driver ever and my idol. Suddenly I heard on the radio that a competition is taking place. The winner has the opportunity to take part in a race and his/ her trainer will be lightning McQueen. As soon as I heard that I called the number of the competition I thought that I must win this competition. I was really anxious and nervous and I had been waiting the whole afternoon to get a call from the competition. While I was getting ready to sleep somebody was phoning me and I ran to the living room.

-Hello, are you Mr. Winnie Pooh?

-Yes, sir

-We are calling from the radio station BBC and we would like to inform you that you are the winner of the competition. Congratulations.

-Oh! Thank you so much.

And then they told me further information about the competition. I was thinking all night about the following day: my first training with Lightning McQueen!

The next day...

I reached the stadium and I was really excited. I saw my trainer coming to my side.

-Are you Winnie?

-Yes, in person

-Nice to meet you

-Me too!

At that time we were talking about the training program. Then I met all the other contestants. All of them were nice and polite to me except for Bad Devil who was a little bit rude but I ignored him.

1 day before the race

-'Winnie', said my trainer to me, you are one of the best drivers that I have ever met. You take things seriously, you are hard-working and you have lots of patience. I want to tell you a secret that few people know about it.

-Thank you very much, I really appreciate your words. But what's this secret?

-There is somebody in the old bar, called : “ The Talking Book” who gives useful tips to the best drivers such as you. I want you to go there.

-But what is he going to tell me?

-You are the only one that is going to know that

-Wait please!

But he had already left.

When I arrived to the old bar I told a guy there, that McQueen had sent me and he let me enter the room where the Talking Book was. When I explained the situation to the Talking Book, he gave me a lot of advice about the race. In the end he warned me that something bad was going to happen in the race. But I was so happy that I ignored his warning.

The next morning was the big day that I had been waiting for and I was really nervous. The race began and to a certain extent I was in the first place. However, I saw the other contestants' cars lose fumes and then they crashed. Bad Devil took the first place and I took the second. After awhile, an explosion took place and my car turned upside down. I saw fire people screaming for first aid but then I lost consciousness .

When I woke up I was in a hospital and next to me was my trainer. He said to me:

-I' m so glad you finally woke up

-What happened?

He described everything to me. Suddenly Bugs Bunny, -one of my contestants that obviously was fine- entered the room and he said that Bad Devil was responsible for this situation.

In addition to that he got somebody to damage our vehicles because he wanted to take the first place. I couldn't believe what had happened. Two days later I was informed that Bad Devil was in prison and I had won the competition. I was extremely happy and I celebrated victory with my friends and my trainer. It was an unforgettable experience and I will always remember it forever.
