The destruction

Once upon a time there was Peppa pig who lived in a castle by a river. But that river sometimes overflows causing major disasters in the areas nearby, except from Peppa's castle, as it was very well constructed. Peppa always loved to sit next to the river with her cat, after the flooding. She loves the colors and the surroundings. However, one day everything changed Peppa pig was in her bedroom playing with her cat when all of a sudden she heard a weird and loud noise coming from outside the window. She approaches and realized that the river has overflowed again but this time it was much worse than any other time. She runs scared to find her parents but the water has already invaded the castle and destroyed the castle's basement and first floor.

After the immense flooding Peppa finds herself lying on the ruins of her castle. She quickly gets up and looks for her parents. As she was walking, she finds her cat and after a while her parents, too. Sadly, no one else is there. So, they decide to walk all the way to the closest town for help.

A day goes by, and the town is nowhere to be seen but they keep walking. After hours of walking Peppa pig and her family come across a blond girl in the middle of the woods, eating pizza. When Peppa looks at her, she has a very bad feeling about her. However, her parents seem to disagree as they reluctantly approach her.

The blond girl notices them and she is now aware of their presence but she doesn't seem to be scared at all. She smiles, picks up the pizza that was on the ground and walks towards Peppa and her family. The girl says that she is here to help and offers them some pizza. Then Peppa's parents explain to her everything; about the flooding and their wish to find a shelter.

Luckily the blond girl who eats pizza turned out very kind and helpful. She led Peppa pig and her family to a wonderful village where they found accommodation for a few months, until their castle was rebuilt. A year later, Peppa and her family live happily in their castle by the river with the blond girl living with them ever after.
